

Flipped Learning Extension with Comprehension Illuminated: Volume I

Suggested Responses

Lesson 1: Descriptive Writing & Comprehension Skills

(1) Mini Reading Comprehension

1. a) Her hair was messy from her perspiration. b) She looked very worn out.
2. Example of visual imagery: 'hair tousled in sweat' or 'face haggard'
Example of sound imagery: 'calm and mellow voice'
3. The writer creates a contrast between Hafsa's calm exterior and her exhausted and worried self. There is also contrast between the image of an angel and a mortal.
4. Helplessness / Resignation

(2) Guided Descriptive Writing

With the quality materials in Comprehension Illuminated: Volume I as well as the helping words provided, students should be able to manage a decent description and improve it with the help of peer review.

(3) Paraphrasing Practice

the prisoners' ragged (pg 105) clothes	the convicts' rough and worn-out attire
flock to snap up cheap goods	rush to purchase good bargains
praised for his immaculate (pg 105) handwriting	commended for his perfectly neat script
The presenter's use of that hideous (pg 103) colour scheme annoyed me	I was irritated by the very ugly combination of colours used in the materials
the student was scolded for his long and unkempt (pg 105) hair	the student was reprimanded for sporting a messy mane
her face was sallow (pg 101) and shiny with sweat	her face was pale and glistening with perspiration
be responsible for our actions	be accountable for what we have done
The leaves shrivel (pg 103) and the plant ceases to grow	The leaves dry up and shrink, halting the plant's development
Anorexia and bulimia can cause youths to become emaciated (pg 101)	Eating disorders can cause teenagers to become severely underweight

The Illuminated Series

Vocabulary Illuminated

Comprehension Illuminated: Volume I

Comprehension Illuminated: Volume II

www.real-bookstore.com

Visit our website to access more English learning resources or find out about our workbooks and workshops.