

DANIELLE CYVAS

EXPERIENCE

Danielle had been a hobbyist quilter for over 15 years before starting a quilt shop with her mother in 2015. Since then, Danielle has made countless quilts both for fun and for education. Danielle has been teaching piecing and quilting classes since 2016.

Danielle has been an avid fan and user of GE Designs and Stripology since discovering them at the 2017 St. Louis Quilt Market.

ABOUT

Danielle lives in Waterloo, Illinois with her husband and owns her quilt shop in Columbia, Illinois. As a mother of three, and grandmother of one, she is always on the move.

Danielle was drawn to the Stripology rulers and the GE Design methods because of their ability to reduce fabric prep time. With kids, a grandkid and a shop, time is valuable.

CLASS OPTIONS

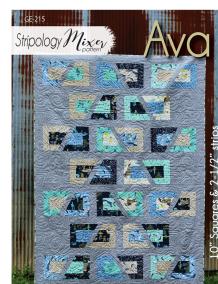

Mastering Your Stripology (Beginner - ♦)

Take your Stripology rulers beyond just cutting strips, squares, and rectangles. Master the 1/4" and 1/8" cuts and learn how to Stripologize any project. Cut 60° and 45° angles and the GEasy Way to make basic units like HST's, QST's and Flying Geese. This class has Half and Full Day options.

Ava (Confident Beginner - ♦♦)

Spend the day with your friends creating this fun quilt and learning how to utilize those angles on your Stripology XL Ruler. This is a Full Day Class and is great for confident beginners.

Zoe (Intermediate - ♦♦♦)

This class will take a complex looking quilt, and make it the GEasy Way. This gorgeous quilt could be your next go-to pattern. This is offered as a full day class.
