

Contents

Foreword: Archbishop Christopher Prowse	ix
Introduction	1
Part I: The Townsville model	7
The beginning of a movement
1 What is Christian meditation? Origins, purpose and modern practice	9
2 We progress by stopping Bringing meditation to children in Townsville Catholic schools	17
3 From mind to heart Spiritual formation in a school setting	33
4 Imparting the gift The role of the teacher	45
5 Let the little children come to me Learning from the capacity and witness of children	57
Part II: Global perspectives	65
The spread of the Christian Meditation movement
6 Learning to listen – listening to learn Applying the Rule of St Benedict to UK schools	67

7	A new fire The Caribbean experience	87
8	A flowering Introducing the Townsville model in Ontario	95
9	Seeing the invisible Sowing the seeds in South Africa	105
10	The contemplative dimension in catechesis and evangelisation Deepening faith and love in the classroom	115
11	Beginnings Bringing meditation to schools in Canberra	123
12	The ABC of a Christian meditation journey A student's reflection	135
	Conclusion	147
	Endnotes	151