

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	v
INTRODUCTION	1
THE TWO DOVES	3
MEDITATION IN THE CHRISTIAN TRADITION	5
The Wheel of Prayer	6
What is Prayer?	7
The Essential Teaching	10
What is Meditation?	13
The Practice	15
Biblical support for Christian Meditation from a Presbyterian point of view	17
THE WAY OF THE MANTRA	23
The Mantra in the Christian Tradition of Meditation and the Teaching of John Main	24
The Way of the Mantra	31
The Mantra, Distractions and the Monkey Mind	34
Choosing the Mantra	37
The Way of the Mantra in the Eastern and Western Tradition of Christianity	39
Important People/Stages in the Development of Contemplative Christian Spirituality	42
THE FRUITS OF MEDITATION	49
The Fruits of Meditation	50
THE JOURNEY OF MEDITATION	55
The Labyrinth at Chartres	56
Pilgrimage to the Heart	58
Stages on the Journey	61
Into the Promised Land	68
The Psychological Stages of the Journey	72
The Four Stages of Prayer and Mantric Meditation Teresa Of Avila and John Main	79
ORGANIZING A SCHOOL OF MEDITATION EVENT	85
Introducing Christian Meditation to Others	86
Practical Details for Setting Up and Running an Event	87

INTRODUCTORY TALKS	93
Introducing Meditation to a Mainly Christian Audience	94
Introducing Meditation to a Mixed or Largely Secular-minded Group	99
SAMPLE TALKS	103
Summary of the Teaching	104
The Light of the Word	107
“We Are What We Do With Silence”	110
From Cassian to Main: Meditation and the Christian Tradition	117
THE MEDITATION PERIOD	125
The Meditation Period	126
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS	129
Questions and answers	130
THE ROLE OF THE CHRISTIAN MEDITATION GROUP	141
The Weekly Group Meeting	142
The Role of the Christian Meditation Group	144
The Christian Meditation Group Leader	145
John Main’s Deep Insight about Small Groups	146
RESOURCES	151
Individuals Just Beginning to Meditate	152
New Groups	153