

The Becca

When you wear the Becca may it remind you to look up. You never know who you might just run into. Don't stay so closed into your thoughts and your journey that you forget to look at the world around you right now. So much joy to be found by just looking around you.

Love Woolies