

The Charlie

When you wear the Charlie, may you be reminded of the power that is within you to change the world. You are unique and the world needs you to show up. May you be reminded of the ability you have to help others and be an example of persistence, motivation, and compassion.

You were made to do this.

Love Woolies