

The Nikki

When you wear the Nikki, may you remember that YOU were someone before you were a mom and THAT PERSON MATTERS! If you don't listen to yourself, then no one will. You have to take care of YOU. YOU deserve to have nice things said about you from YOU. YOU deserve the medical treatment that you need. YOU have to be your greatest defender. You have to be your biggest cheerleader. You have to be your biggest fan. YOU MATTER!
