

Discoveries in modern science are showing peri- or intra-workout nutrition to be more important than ever. The right combination of macro- and micro-nutrients can confer serious performance benefits in a wide variety of athletic applications. But in what amounts?

With Core INTRA, the guesswork on intra-workout nutrition is over. We've chosen the exact ingredients, at their precise levels, that you require to super charge your workout. One scoop provides key ingredients shown in scientific research to increase power, endurance, and stamina. Making INTRA the only intra-workout solution you'll ever need.[†]
