

Tasting Room Menu—Wines

Louise: Named after our maternal grandmother, this 2017 Petit Manseng dry varietal wine is bright, crisp, fruit forward, citrusy, was aged in stainless steel, no oak, for about 6 months and is perfect for Spring or Summer.....$8/25 (glass/bottle)

Murph: Nick-named after the Murphy side of our family, this dry 2017 Chardonnay varietal wine is bright, fruit forward, citrusy, with hints of pome fruit, was aged in stainless steel, no oak, for about 6 months, and is a wonderful Spring or Summer wine. Gold medal winner/Best in Class in the 2018 Loudoun Wine Awards.....$8/25

Lisa & Thad SO: Named after our daughter and son-in-law, this dry 2017 Petit Manseng varietal wine was aged in steel and French oak for 18 months, expresses citrus and pineapple fruits and mild oak tannins, and is a delightful alternative to steel-aged Petit Manseng. Try it with lighter meats, fish, and cheeses or by itself on a warm day.....$8/25

Harle: Named after our home street in Leesburg, VA for our neighbors and family, who helped blend this 2018 Rose wine, comprised of Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Franc, the parents of Cabernet Sauvignon. It's a delicious, fruit forward, crisp, lighter red wine, and its perfect for a Spring or Summer day. Enjoy.....$8/25

Paul: Named after all the Pauls in our family, including our youngest son, this dry 2017 Cabernet Sauvignon varietal wine was aged in steel and French oak for about 17 months, has dark red color, expresses dark red fruits and oak and fruit tannins, and is perfect with food.....$10/30

2nd Act (2017): Named for this vineyard/winery undertaking, this 2017 Bordeaux blend was made from Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot (the largest component wine). It has deep red color, expresses black and red fruits and oak and fruit tannins, and was aged about 12 months in new French oak. Silver medal winner in the 2019 Virginia Governor's Cup competition.....$10/35

Tastings: 1 oz (or so) pours of the wines above to help you decide what's to your taste. No charge for La Famiglia Wine Club members. No charge for active duty or former military, law enforcement, or other first responders, no charge for active or retired school teachers.....$8/NC