How you LIV'N? What do you do? How did you get started and how did you get to where you are at today?

By day I am a Data Analyst, by passion I am an artist and muralist. I just started blending my passions together data and art work. I have embarked on a journey to do art for mental health and to continue to elevate the conversation because I deeply care about this topic. If I can change one person's life through art I have done my job. A lot of my work represents data.

Where do you get your inspiration from?

I find inspiration in everything, colors, people, fonts, cartoon characters. I am inspired by art in a cultural context that reflects statistics of contemporary oppression.

What has been the most challenging part of your journey?

creating my own brand and art that people recognize

What has been the most rewarding part of your journey? What are you most proud of?

Peoples responses and stories about mental health and thanking me bc my art keeps them going.

What's something about you that not a lot of people know? What makes you unique?

I actually have stage fright!

What else do you want to accomplish in life?

I want to spread a message bigger than ourselves. A message that will not be profited off of but to profit the community.

What's something you've learned about life that could help someone else?

Going at your own pace is OKAY.
