Bill Reid Foundation Policies
Volunteers and Beneficiaries 2020.1
Area: Limitations
Date Adopted: March 31, 2016
Reviewed: March 29, 2018

Purpose:
To provide appropriate confidentiality to volunteers and beneficiaries (those who contribute to the Bill Reid Foundation e.g. members, Patron circle donors and others)

Objective:
To guide and inform operations and support the establishment of a culture of philanthropy at the Bill Reid Foundation

In order to build and maintain both meaningful and respectful relationships with its volunteers and beneficiaries the Foundation will:

1. Comply with privacy and personal information protection laws of the federal and provincial governments;
2. Use methods of collecting, reviewing, transmitting, and storing personal information that protects against the improper access of this information;
3. Only disclose personal information with the consent of those persons to organizations or persons outside of the Foundation except when mandated to do so by law;
4. Clearly communicate what may be reasonably expected from the Foundation by volunteers and beneficiaries in terms of support, services and benefits; and
5. Will be members of the Bill Reid Foundation.