

How Does Consignment Work?

Around
The Block

If you have...

Large Items:

For larger pieces such as artwork, rugs, lighting and furniture, please send photos to our email address (see below!). If we feel we can sell your items, we'll ask you to book an appointment to bring your piece(s) in.

Please note that moving large items into our shop is your responsibility. Be sure to bring the appropriate help to get the items into the store. We are happy to recommend excellent movers if you need!

Small Items:

For small or 'tabletop' items, please call the store to book your appointment. If you have any questions or need some guidance, we are happy to help via phone or email!

Appointments are scheduled Tues. through Sat. from 11 am to 4 pm

Bring your items to your appointment and unpack! An appraiser will go through each item with you. We'll let you know if items need to be professionally cleaned or repaired, or if any jewelry needs to be appraised. We'll send you home with any pieces we cannot help with. After your appointment, if there are any items we cannot sell after closer inspection, we'll ask you to pick them up from the shop.

If you don't have an existing account with us, we'll ask you to fill out a contract to set you up as a consignor. Within a few days, an appraiser will email you with the selected inventory, including prices, and your consignor account login details. Depending on what you bring in, you may receive separate inventories from different appraisers.

You have until 10 am the next business day to let us know if you have any issues with the prices of your items. If we don't hear from you, your items will go out on the sales floor and in some cases, the website.

Keep track of your consigned items through our consignor portal. Your items will follow the pricing schedule outlined in the contract.

When your items sell, you'll receive 60% of the selling price. Cheques are sent out at the beginning of each month. Your items are yours until they sell - you can retrieve them with 24 hours notice. Unless seasonal, we keep your items until they sell!
