

Information & Instructions: Letter To A Client Regarding The Discharge Hearing

PREVIEW

1. Use this letter to notify the client that he or she will not be attending the discharge hearing.
2. There was a time when both the attorney and the client attended a discharge hearing.
3. This letter advises the client that since the attorney has not received any objections to the client's discharge, there is not need for the attorney to attend the discharge hearing, if it is held.

Regarding: Debtor [Name]; Case No. [Number]; Attendance at Discharge Hearing;
Closing of File

Dear [Name of client].

THIS DOCUMENT

Please be advised that current bankruptcy court procedures no longer require debtors to attend a discharge hearing when there is no opposition to discharge.

As of today's date no such opposition has been filed in your case. Creditors have until [Date], to file any such opposition. However, I do not anticipate that occurring since your bankruptcy is a no asset filing.

Sometime after [Date], you will be receiving a notice of discharge from the Court which you will be able to use as proof of the discharge of your scheduled debts.

THANK YOU

Please note that at this time I am closing my file and will take no further action in this matter unless I hear from you or one of your creditors. Good luck to you in the future.

Please contact me if I can be of any further service to you.

Very truly yours
