1. A limited liability company's name must contain the word "Limited Liability Company," or "Limited Company," or the abbreviations "L.C.C.," "LLC," "LC" or "L.C.". and any additional words that may be required by law.
2. It may not contain any word or phrase indicating or implying that it is organized for any purpose other than a purpose contained in the company's Certificate of Formation.
3. Furthermore, the company's name may not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic limited liability company, corporation or limited partnership existing under the laws of Texas.
4. PLEASE DO NOT COPY
Likewise, the name may not be the same as the name of any foreign limited liability company, corporation or limited partnership authorized to transact business in Texas. The name may not be the same as one which has been reserved pursuant to the Texas Limited Liability Company Act or any other statute providing for the reservation of names by a corporation or limited partnership with the Secretary of State.
5. A limited liability company's name may be similar to a name reserved by another limited liability company, corporation, or limited partnership if written consent is obtained from the existing entity.
6. Any domestic or foreign limited liability company having authority to transact business in Texas may do so under an assumed name by filing an assumed name certificate in the manner prescribed by law.
