1)

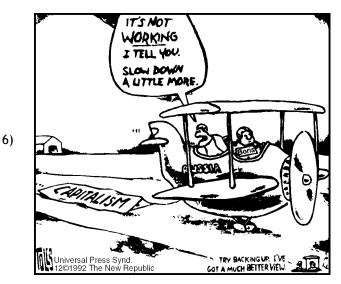

The main idea of the cartoon is that the crisis will

- A) be controlled by Western democracies
- B) be confined to the Middle East
- C) eventually affect the entire world
- D) totally destroy the Islamic religion
- 2) Before towns and cities can develop in a society, the society needs to establish
 - A) a democratic government
 - B) a writing system
 - C) an agricultural surplus
 - D) an educational system
- 3) Which statement best explains why democratic governments failed in many European nations after World War I?
 - A) The governments were unable to solve serious economic problems in these nations.
 - B) These nations were constantly threatened by attacks from the victors of the war.
 - C) The working classes were put in control of industrial production in these nations.
 - D) The United States openly interfered in European political affairs.
- 4) Which situation contributed most to the beginning of the Renaissance?
 - A) Strong rulers censored new ideas.
 - B) Europe became increasingly isolated from other regions.
 - C) The emphasis on religious uniformity increased.
 - D) A wealthy class that supported the arts emerged.

Which is an accurate statement based on the information in the graph?

- A) In 1914, the five major European powers shown spent more on military programs than on any other program.
- B) In 1914, Germany spent more money on its military than did the other European nations shown.
- C) In 1914, Russia was the most militaristic of all the European nations shown.
- D) In 1914, Austria-Hungary attempted to end the arms race in Europe.

This 1992 cartoon refered to Russia's

- A) constant fear of invasion from the West
- B) tendency to establish totalitarian rule during a crisis
- C) attempts to settle foreign policy disputes
- D) difficulty in establishing economic reforms

Page 2

7) "Zionists Demand a Homeland"
"Croatians Call for Self-Determination of Croatia"
"German Unification Completed"

These headlines reflect the concept of

- A) Marxism C) militarism
- B) isolationism D) nationalism

- 8) The teachings of Confucius encouraged people to
 - A) reject government authority
 - B) follow a code of moral conduct
 - C) put their own interests first
 - D) believe in reincarnation
- 9) The illustration below shows details that reflect various features of Asian life.

Identify three details from the illustration and for each detail identified:

- (1) Explain how it reflects a political, economic, or social feature in Asian life.
- (2) Discuss why the feature has been important to the development of a specific nation of Asia.
- 10) "For oh," say the children, "We are weary, And we cannot run or leap;
 - If we cared for any meadows, it were merely To drop down in them and sleep....
 - And, underneath our heavy eyelids drooping The reddest flower would look as pale as snow
 - For, all day, we drive the wheels of iron In the factories, round and round."

This poem expresses concern for the

- A) pollution of the environment by industrial waste
- B) need for on-site day-care facilities in factories
- C) increasing use of automation in factories
- D) exploitation of children in factory jobs

- 11) In Africa, South Asia, and Latin America, people have moved from rural villages to urban areas to
 - A) find job opportunities in the cities
 - B) avoid the high cost of living in rural areas
 - C) escape the poor climates in rural areas
 - D) live among people of different ethnic backgrounds in the cities
- 12) According to Karl Marx, history is the record of the
 - A) wars and conflicts between national leaders
 - B) struggle between classes in society
 - C) increasing prosperity brought about by industrialization
 - D) granting of more political liberties to all people