PROSPECTS IN COLLEGE

WEEK 4 (MAR 4-10TH)

Multiple PTA alumni participated in games for their respective colleges in Week 4. Let's take a look at their standout moments from the past week of action!

CONNOR GOODWIN of Edgewood College went 2 for 4 with a triple, contributing 2 runs, and showcasing his speed with a stolen base.

For the UW-Milwaukee Panthers, OWEN RICE secured his first win of the season, allowing only 2 hits and striking out 4 batters over 3 innings.

Also representing Edgewood College, KYLE SAGAN batted 3 for 4, while driving in 3 runs for his team.

NATE SNEAD continued his undefeated streak for the University of Tennessee Volunteers, moving to an impressive 4-0 record for this season. In this outing, he pitched 6 innings, while striking out 5 batters.

KEEGAN MCCARTY from McKendree University earned his first win of the season, pitching a solid five innings.

Representing College of Lake County, RYDER DEROUIN went 2 for 6 at bat, while driving in 2 runs for his team.

As week 4 of college baseball comes to a close, the performances of these athletes serve as a testament to their dedication, skill, and potential. Their contributions on the field not only highlight their individual talents, but also underscore the collective strength of collegiate baseball. We eagerly anticipate witnessing the continued growth and success of these athletes and what they can accomplish in the games ahead.
