PROSPECTS IN COLLEGE

WEEK 6 (MAR 18-24TH)

During Week 6, we saw a week filled with impressive displays of talent from PTA alumni, despite weather disruptions affecting many teams' schedules. From clutch hits and runs scored, here are some highlights:

KEEGAN MCCARTY of McKendree University showcased his pitching prowess, securing a win after tossing 5.2 innings and striking out 6 batters.

For Ball State University, JACOB HARTLAUB delivered a solid performance, earning a save with 2 innings pitched and 2 strikeouts.

NATE SNEAD, a Tennessee Volunteer, got the win after pitching 4.2 innings and striking out 6 batters.

Representing Madison College, EVAN IWINSKI batted 1 for 4 with an RBI.

For UW-Milwaukee, ANDREW CHAPMAN made an impact off the bench, securing a hit and a walk in 2 pinch-hit appearances. OWEN RICE had a pitching appearance for the Panthers as well.

For Heartland Community College, MAX HENNEMANN batted 2 for 4 with 2 RBIs and 2 runs scored.

COOPER KUEMMEL of Rock Valley College batted 1 for 2 with an RBI.

Representing UW-Stevens Point, ANTHONY TOMCZAK had instrumental offensive contributions by going 7 for 19 batting with a double, 1 RBI, and 4 runs scored.

MITCH CRAWLEY delivered a clean inning pitching with 1 strikeout. Topping this, COLTON MARTELL had 2 pinch-hit at bats. Each of these performances helped the Pointers to a 5-1 week.

PEYTON SEEBACHER of Milwaukee Area Technical College showed off his offensive firepower with 3 hits and 4 runs, including a triple for the Stormers.

For Ohio Dominican University, GIANNI PASSARELLI added to his 4-game hit streak by batting 4 for 13 with 3 RBIs.

ETHAN SAWYER of Upper Iowa University went 5 for 14 batting including 2 walks and 3 runs scored.

Lastly, RYDER DEROUIN of College of Lake County had a great week at the plate, batting 4 for 6 with 2 RBIs and 3 runs scored.
