Symbols for Option 2:

GOLDEN THRONE - Symbolizes leadership and your role as a leader of the next generation.

KNOWLEDGE - AKA "Nea onnim no sua a ohu". The literal translation of "Nea onnim no sua a ohu" is "He who does not know will know from learning" which symbolizes growing by obtaining knowledge.

PERSEVERANCE - AKA "wawa aba". The literal translation of "wawa aba" is "the wawa tree's seed". The wawa tree's seed is known for being extremely hard. This wawa aba symbolizes toughness and your ability to persevere through difficulty to get to where you are now.

SANKOFA - "Sankofa" is a Ghanaian word that means "it is not wrong to go back for that which you have forgotten." The term is a combination of the words: san (return), ko (go), fa (seek and take). "Sankofa" teaches us to go back to our roots to move forward.

SCALES - The scales of justice represent justice and equality.

CADUCEUS - The medicine Caduceus symbolizes healing and health.

UNITY - The UNITY "chain link" symbol is called "Kramo bone" which symbolizes unity, strong bonds and togetherness. Kramo bone means "the bad people make things difficult for good people" and reminds us to stay united in the face of adversity and continue in our commitment to do good and encourage each other in unity.

DIVERSITY - AKA "Funtunfunefu Denkyemfunefu". The literal translation of "Funtunfunefu Denkyemfunefu" is "Siamese crocodiles" which symbolizes unity in diversity.
