

Governing Document

KJF-From Scratch (KJF) is currently set up as a Sole Trader business.

Kimberley Fentiman is the founder and owner and main decision maker in the business.

The main principle place of business is under-taken at:

Horsham
RH12

KJF-From Scratch is committed to giving the equivalent of 50% of net profits each year to charities operating within the UK and worldwide. We prefer to support charities working to help prevent human trafficking, supporting victims of modern day slavery, parenting and childhood charities.

KJF is committed to making business decisions based on the positive impact to the environment and the people involved. We care about the people and planet over profit. Therefore, we strive to always use environmentally friendly materials in the manufacture of our products such as naturally sustainable materials and organic materials also. We are also committed to using recyclable and reusable materials in the packaging of our goods.

KJF income is generated primarily through the selling of handmade clothing and accessories online to consumers and wholesale customers.
