

Black Friday Technology Deals

Once again, Atlanta-based tech writer, Rick Limpert, shares some of his top gadget and tech gift picks for the holiday shopping season — items for everyone on your list. With Black Friday on the horizon, here's a chance to get some of the hottest technology at great prices.

Here are Rick's suggestions:

GloLens

The one attachment you need for your smartphone and selfie's made easy with an illuminating lens that captures photos at a wide angle. The three setting light enhances selfies and takes them to another level! Discounted down to just $22. The 12 LED bulbs enhance every scene. Shooters can adjust up to three brightness levels. Choose rose gold, gold or silver when it comes to colors. When combined with the U Speaker as a remote control for your phone, the GloLens makes your remote selfie the best ever! Includes Carrying case and USB Charging cable to recharge light and fits most smartphones and tablets
