RaNae Merrill
Explanation of Fees & Expenses

Expenses to be Paid by Presenter

Travel and event-related expenses will be paid by the Presenter, including:

Transportation to/from and at Event: Transportation to the event will be decided by RaNae, as determined by what is most practical for her overall schedule. Please keep in mind that due to factors beyond control (such as airline delays or highway construction), last-minute changes in transportation may need to be made and may increase transportation costs. While RaNae will do everything reasonably possible to contain costs, the Presenter agrees that all transportation costs, even if incurred due to such changes, are the responsibility of the Presenter.

Driving: If RaNae drives her own car Presenter will pay round trip mileage at the current IRS rate, round trip tolls, parking and any other auto expenses (other than fuel) directly related to the event. If she rents a car, Presenter will pay car rental; transportation to/from car rental location; insurance, if necessary; fuel; highway tolls; excess mileage charges, if any; parking and all other reasonably necessary incidental expenses.

Ground Transportation: Taxi, bus, train or other public transportation to and from all airports and to the venue, including baggage charges. (Taxi fare from RaNae's home to LaGuardia Airport is currently $45 each way, $90 round trip. JFK and Newark airports cost more.) If RaNae is not driving directly to the venue, transportation arrangements need to be made from airport/station to the venue. The Presenter should arrange to meet RaNae with a vehicle adequate to handle two or three large (50 pound/ 23 kilo) suitcases, or RaNae will arrange appropriate transportation (rental car, taxi, etc.).

Air Travel: Round trip air fare (or a pro-rated portion for shared events); travel insurance; baggage charges if applicable (usually 2 checked bags for a total of approximately $70-$120 round trip).

Lodging: Private non-smoking hotel room (or dormitory if on a university campus) with internet access, a private bathroom and a fitness room. A home (without pets) may be acceptable under some circumstances - please discuss this with RaNae before making arrangements. The Presenter agrees that if a problem with home accommodations makes it necessary for RaNae to move to a hotel, the Presenter will pay for the hotel.

Meals: The cost of meals not provided by the Presenter (including travel days) will be included for reimbursement on the invoice, with receipts provided. Or, in order to simplify accounting, a $45.00 per diem may be assessed on days when meals are not provided by Presenter ($35 per diem if the hotel provides breakfast). Please advise RaNae in advance if you want meals to be billed as a per diem. RaNae has no special dietary needs, but please provide low-fat, low-sugar meals with plenty of fruits and vegetables. (I don't eat liver!!!!)

Extra Days: If RaNae needs to spend extra time at the event in order to save the Presenter money on air fare or to schedule multiple events, the Presenter(s) will be responsible for all expenses such as hotel, meals and rental car (but not any of RaNae's personal expenses) on the extra days. If RaNae will be in your area for extra days in order for your group to share expenses with Co-Presenters in your area, the Co-Presenters will be responsible for sharing all expenses on these extra days.

Rest Days: RaNae will need at least one day of rest after six days of teaching and traveling before teaching additional workshops. Presenters (and Co-Presenters) will be responsible for expenses on these days. These expenses may be shared by other groups in the event that this is a multi-group tour.

Miscellaneous Other Expenses: Shipping samples for promoting the workshop; shipping class materials required for workshop/lecture; visa and customs fees; excess baggage charges, if necessary to bring required workshop/lecture materials; and other expenses as reasonably necessary. Costs to ship items for sale but not required in a workshop will not be charged to the Presenter.

Payment of Fees & Expenses

A deposit of $150 per day of teaching must be received with the contract in order to reserve dates. An invoice for the cost of airline tickets may be sent to Presenter at the time they are purchased, and payment is due upon receipt. The balance of all fees and expenses is due at completion of the Event. If RaNae incurs necessary additional expenses after the end of the Event (airline baggage handling fees, for example), an invoice will be sent to the Presenter, and payment is due upon receipt. A surcharge of 4% will be added to any payments made by credit card to cover processing fees.

International Events: Please make all payments in US funds. Please refer to the page entitled International Event Agreement for details on payment methods.

Sharing Expenses: If more than one Presenter are sharing expenses, it is the responsibility of co-presenters to decide among themselves and to inform RaNae before the event of how expenses will be divided among them. RaNae will make reasonable efforts to apportion expenses as requested. As a general guideline, day-by-day expenses such as meals and hotels will be invoiced to the Presenter for whom RaNae is teaching on that day, and travel expenses will be apportioned equally among Presenters. In the event of any dispute as to how expenses are apportioned, Presenters will pay RaNae's invoices as presented, and will resolve the dispute among themselves.

Cancellations & Refund Policy

The Presenter may cancel a workshop at any time; cancellations less than 60 days (90 days for international venues) before the event (or before the start of a multi-venue tour of which the event is a part, if applicable) will result in forfeiture of the deposit. If a workshop is canceled for any reason after airline tickets have been purchased and/or any other non-refundable expenses have been incurred, the Presenter(s) will reimburse RaNae for the full amount of such expenses. The deposit is not credited against these expenses. If you cancel a workshop/lecture, and coming to your group for fewer workshops/lectures than originally agreed upon in this contract will cause economic hardship for RaNae, RaNae reserves the right to cancel the remainder of the contracted workshops/lectures; if this occurs less than less than 60 days (90 days for international venues) the deposit is not refundable. If your event is part of a multi-venue tour and your group cancels a workshop/lecture after the start of the tour, your group will be responsible for covering RaNae's daily minimum fee of $800.00, plus expenses, for the days she was scheduled to teach at your event. If RaNae cancels an engagement and it cannot be rescheduled within a year of the originally scheduled date, the deposit will be refunded. Cancellations due to natural disasters, weather, airline disruptions or other factors beyond the control of RaNae or the Presenter will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis. RaNae's preference in such cases is to reschedule.

Sales

Most workshops have materials fees payable by each student directly to RaNae in the workshop. See workshop descriptions for details. In addition, RaNae will offer a number of items for sale, which may include materials and tools needed by students to complete the workshop projects, as well as books, patterns, CDs, fabrics and fabric kits, pins, etc. The Presenter will not collect any commission on these sales. RaNae will limit promotion and sale of these items to times outside workshop hours, unless they are directly related to or needed in the workshop. The cost of shipping items not directly related to workshops/lectures will not be charged to the Presenter.

Library copies of books: As a courtesy, Presenters who are non-profit organizations may purchase one copy of each of RaNae's books at half price ($15.00) for use in the organization's library.

In order to make the most economical travel arrangements, RaNae must be provided with all necessary information about exact dates and times of workshops and other events at least 90 days prior to the first scheduled event on the trip which includes your event. Your event may not be the first on her itinerary, and you may be required to provide this information more than 90 days prior to your event. If your failure to provide this information when needed results in increased travel expenses, your group will be solely responsible for paying any increase in travel costs.

- Biography & Photo: RaNae's photo and bio can be downloaded from her website at <http://www.ranaemerrillquilts.com/meet-ranae>
- Publicity Images: Images for promoting workshops can be downloaded from RaNae's website on the description pages for each workshop at <http://www.ranaemerrillquilts.com/teaching>
- Samples & Books: Due to the high value of my quilts I do not send them as samples. As an alternative, I provide images on each course description page which can be used in your guild publicity materials and printed to pass around at guild meetings. Also, passing around copies of my books at guild meetings is an effective way of showcasing classes, because there is such a variety of quilts in the books. The books give an excellent sense of the wide variety of possibilities, and also give a preview of the techniques to be taught in class. Guilds may purchase one library copy of each of my books at half price, plus shipping. If you would like the books in advance of my visit, please order the book(s) through my website. The online store will charge the full retail price, plus shipping, then as soon as I receive the order I will refund back the difference between the retail price and the guild discount price. Be sure to include your guild name on the order. If you purchase the books during my visit I will add them to the guild's invoice

Supply Lists

Materials lists for each workshop can be downloaded from RaNae's website on the description pages for each workshop at <http://www.ranaemerrillquilts.com/teaching>. These may be linked, printed or emailed for distribution to students participating in workshops. If you downloaded a materials list a long time before a workshop, please check closer to the time for updates.

Lecture Hall & Classroom Requirements

Specific requirements for each class and lecture can be found on the individual workshop pages of my website: www.ranaemerrillquilts.com/teaching. Please check prior to your event for updates.

Equipment For Lectures: One large table at the front of the room to hold samples and quilts during lecture. One large table (two if possible) for lecture materials and quilts. A stand for hanging quilts, if possible. Public address system for audiences of more than 50 people. Optional: A digital projector and connector cable.

Classroom Requirements for Workshops:

- One large table central to the teaching area for demonstration. (I do not need a sewing machine.)
- One large table for books and tools available to students during class.
- A white board, chalk board or large tablet and easel for drawing demonstrations.
- For each student: Table space to work at a sewing machine, with a cutting/ironing area next to it.
- Outlets and electrical capacity to support sewing machines and two irons.
- Room must have adequate lighting and ventilation.

Copier Information for Multi-Day Workshops

(Please return this page if you are scheduling a 2-day or longer workshop)

If you are planning a workshop that lasts more than one day, there is a possibility that a photocopier will be needed, depending on how the workshop is formatted.

If a copier is needed and is not readily available at the workshop venue, a basic home-office all-in-one printer/copier will work. (It does not need to be plugged into a computer to make copies.) A copier of this type could be brought from home by a workshop participant, or can be purchased for around $100 at an office supply store such as Staples. (Be sure to have extra cartridges on hand.)

If you are considering a multiple-day workshop, please call RaNae at 212-316-2063 so we can work out the format of the workshop and the facilities that will be available for copying.

I understand that a copier will be needed for a multiple-day workshop and will make the appropriate arrangements with RaNae or her staff no less than one month prior to the workshop.

A Special (Musical) Request from RaNae

As you might recall from reading my bio, I used to play the piano professionally. Recently I have begun playing again and am working toward some performing goals. This means I need to practice regularly and consistently, which can be difficult to do when I travel, so I would like to ask for your help.

If I drive my own car to the event, I will most likely bring a portable keyboard with me. However, if I travel by plane or other public transportation, I will not be able to bring it with me. So.....

Could you locate a piano where I could practice for an hour or so each day during the time I'm visiting your guild? Possibilities might be at the venue where I'm teaching, at a guild member's home, or at the hotel where I'm staying. Ideally it would be in a quiet, private place where I can do the "down and dirty" technical work that it takes to perfect a piece of music. The piano does not have to be tuned specifically for me, but it should be in good condition, as some of the music I'm practicing can be quite a workout -- for the piano as well as for me.

Please note that this is not performance time. It is time to do the "ugly" breakdown work of mastering a piece of music. Please do not expect a command performance or schedule this as a time for people to listen to me.

If I'm teaching a full day, an ideal time to practice is in the afternoon at the end of the workshop(s), before dinner and/or evening events. If there is no evening event then evening after an early dinner would be great. Lunchtime might also be a possibility (particularly if the break is longer than one hour).

I'm happy to discuss this with you and answer any questions you might have. Thank you in advance for whatever you can do to help.

Photography Policy

All the quilts that RaNae shows at lectures and workshops are copyright protected under U.S. law. Because of this, please observe the following guidelines with respect to photography:

The photographs provided on RaNae's workshop pages may be used in the Presenter's promotional materials, including websites or blogs, to promote events in which RaNae is involved. They should be identified as RaNae's designs.

Photography of RaNae's quilts in lectures, workshops or other events is permitted only by an official representative of the Presenter, for the Presenter's official publications, including website or blog, and RaNae must appear with her quilt(s) in all photographs. Students in workshops may photograph their own work in class but may not photograph or video RaNae's demonstrations. Photographs of the process steps are available in RaNae's books and in the class materials.

Video is not permitted under any circumstances.

Photographs of RaNae's quilts may be posted on a personal or private website, blog or other media if the post includes credit to RaNae for the design and both that person and RaNae are in the photograph with the quilt(s). As an alternative, links to RaNae's gallery (www.ranaemerrillquilts.com/gallery) may be included on a blog or website.

For any photography outside these guidelines, please ask in advance.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

RaNae Merrill
International Event Agreement

Please return this form with the signed contract to RaNae Merrill if your event is outside the USA.

If the workshop will be held in a country other than the United States, the Presenter will be responsible for researching customs requirements, filling out customs forms, providing official invitations or other required documents, and, when necessary, arranging to have the necessary paperwork ready at RaNae's port of entry. If RaNae will be required to apply for a work permit in your country, she must be notified at least 120 days prior to leaving for your event, and Presenter will be responsible for any and all fees.

Under no conditions will RaNae be expected to deceive or mislead customs officials when entering or leaving your country.

Any visa fees, customs fees or similar expenses are the responsibility of the Presenter.

All fees must be paid in US dollars. Unless other arrangements have been made in advance, payments by Presenter will be in the form of an international money order in US dollars, a certified check in US dollars from a bank with branches in the United States, wire transfer of US dollars directly into RaNae's bank account, PayPal payment to ranaequilts@hotmail.com, or cash. All fees and expenses associated with accepting foreign payments will be added to the total balance due. These may include (but are not limited to): Incoming wire transfer: $15.00 per transaction. Payments made via PayPal or credit card: 4% surcharge (or the current rate at time of payment) to cover processing fees.
