

Response for inquiries regarding the availability of REFRESH P.M.® and REFRESH® LACRI-LUBE®:

- We have experienced a delay in the availability of REFRESH P.M.® and REFRESH® LACRI-LUBE® due to a lack of raw material components for the packaging of these products.
- Therefore, we are changing the packaging from a metal tube to a laminate tube. Testing is underway to ensure the laminate tube meets our quality and safety standards.
- We expect REFRESH P.M.® and REFRESH® LACRI-LUBE® to be available for sale at retailers and online late summer.
- You may register to receive updates on the availability of these products and a coupon once they are back in stock by visiting: www.refreshbrand.com/ointment.
- At Allergan, we are committed to providing the highest quality products for your eye care needs, and we sincerely apologize for the temporary interruption.
