Perilla oil

Food › Food › Sauce/Seasoning/Ingredients

Premium Gong Gyesoon Fresh Perilla Seed Oil contains a quantity of qualified and unsaturated fatty acids and vitamins and Omega 3 by more than 60%. For getting healthy fresh perilla seed oil with the effect to help treat diseases, fresh perilla seed is washed and naturally dried. It is cold-pressed at around 40°C to keep the natural temperature with consideration that the sunlight temperature to crops doesn't exceed 50°C and to be closer to human body temperature of 36.5°C.

Efficiency of Fresh Perilla Oil

- Brain development of kids
- Prevention of blood vessel aging, blood detoxification, inhibition of blood clots
- Prevention and treatment of artery hardening
- Omega 6 makes blood clots causing artery hardening, and then Omega 3 blocks such process.
- Reduction of blood cholesterol
- Effect by linolenic acid contained in fresh perilla oil
- Effective against numbed hands or feet
- Prevention of dementia
- Effective against memory loss
- Increasing plasmalogen, helping to improve cognitive function
- Effective for restoring body function after giving birth
- Effective for skin beauty
