GREENFINGER SKIN CARE

GREENFINGER, a Soothing Touch of Mother Nature

GREENFINGER understands that moms want to protect their babies' skin in the most natural & healthiest way.

From the tender young skin of newborn babies to the skin of playful schoolkids, GREENFINGER always puts itself in mom's shoes.

Rather than artificial, chemical components, GREENFINGER opts for only the healthiest ingredients found in nature - just right for the sensitive skin of your precious ones.

Share the vitality of the Green Forest which protects babies' and kids' skin from the external environment which also soothes and calms the stress on their vulnerable skin.

After studying so many mothers and thinking of your loved ones all the time, GREENFINGER knows what you want and what's right.

GREENFINGER BABY WIPES

'GREEN' means Nature, 'FINGER' mean soothing touch.

It is a Natural Premium product developed over three years and released in 2007 by Yuhan-Kimberly that knows the forest and child skin better than anyone else.

It is Yuhan-Kimberly's philosophy that the baby skin is born-perfect in nature that there is no need for artificial chemicals.

Rather, it is crucial to protect and maintain the Nature-given skin of baby as it is.

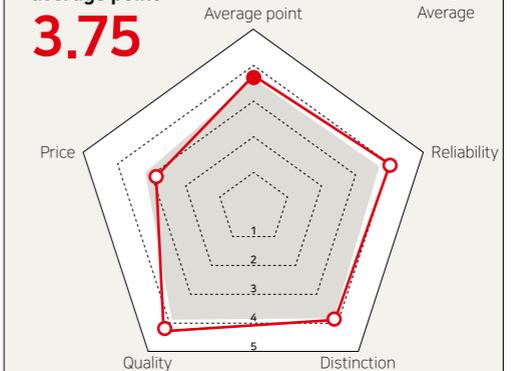

So we put the vitality of nature itself in GREENFINGER.
