Founded in 2004, Aromatica is among the first to emphasize the harmful effects of synthetic/artificial ingredients and the importance of using safe and natural alternatives in beauty. Since its founding year, Aromatica has embodied the concept of nature beauty to its fullest, resonating strongly with safety-conscious millennial consumers.

Aromatica revitalizes the life energy of these carefully-selected plants and herbs through systematic analysis and formulation. Firmly believing that the pinnacle of pristine beauty comes from nature, Aromatica adopts a holistic extraction method to deliver the essence of nature filled with purity.

Aromatica is Korea's first natural cosmetology brand that integrates the West's Apothecary, which is based on the in-depth understanding of the effects of herbs and plants, and the East's herbal medicine philosophy which studies and applies the healing effects of Korean native plants and herbs.
