Good morning!
SJCORE, company producing and manufacturing family food, came to taste today after experiencing numerous trials and errors after launching Oh-chef's Cook-Tok Home Original. As a result of steadily developing our products, our products began to gain popularity gradually. Initially, 'Cook-Tok' had gone to viral to young housewife, and also Cook-Tok has been sold to cafes and community purchases. Now it has been available in online shops.

We have exceeded 6 million packs in sales in 2018, and without any marketing or advertising, we have been exporting to all over the world, Australia, Europe, and Southeast Asia through word of mouth. SJCORE has been able to grow because of you, and we always value the sincerity of our customers.

We are constantly developing new products that will keep the reputation of 'Cook-Tok' that our customers trust and love. We will continue to produce and supply foods that our customers and their families can trust and eat.

Thank you.
