Company Introduction

Cocoa is a company that produces and sells air purifiers for vehicles.

We manufacture air purifiers that install in car vents.

The filter used in the product is an static filter, and the wind flow is efficient even if it is installed in the ventilation hole.

Our products are especially needed for parents with young children and those who drive daily.

It is designed to remove the dust and fine dust coming into the vehicle and to spread the fragrance inside the vehicle by the air freshener.

We perform from the idea to design and production.
