Company Introduction

Since its establishment in 2014, Foxtron has developed a range of hair products including "Dr. Pelo," a hair loss prevention brand and other products aimed to prevent hair loss, such as shampoo, tonic, and treatment. The firm's performed clinical tests on 50 hair loss patients at the Korea University Ansan hospital for about a year to prove its effectiveness. Shortly after Foxtron released its own shampoo and tonic in June last year, the firm has participated in various beauty exhibitions and counseling sessions in Malaysia, Indonesia and Vietnam.
