

spirit-infused creations

DESIGNER TAHNEE MORGAN ON HER INSPIRATIONS.

by Aisling Cronin

Tahnee Morgan is an award-winning milliner and designer who creates beautiful semi-precious gemstone necklaces, beaded bracelets, cashmere, wool and silk scarves and other accessories through her company, 7th Heaven. Her spiritual journey took an extraordinary turn after she had a near-death experience in 2009, following complications from a surgical procedure. Tahnee found her psychic powers increased and she acquired the ability to heal and even predict some future events.

This very personal, life-changing phenomenon inspired Tahnee to visit India for mindfulness retreats and engage in soulful meditation, in order to reconnect with her true Divine self.

I was thrilled to talk to Tahnee about her beautiful experiences.

How did your journey begin?

Over ten years ago, I went through a near-death experience, after I got my tonsils removed and ended up getting a clot in my throat. I was rushed to hospital in an ambulance. The minute the ambulance doors closed behind me, I had a seizure – it was very sudden, and although I could hear what was going on, I was going in and out of my body. I could feel my spirit moving towards a place that was filled with beautiful golden light.

I felt like I was embraced in the breast of a very large swan – which was Archangel Michael – and the divine lights of heaven. To me, they looked like sparks: little flares of light orbs. Archangel Michael's colour was a gorgeous cobalt blue, like the blue part of a flame. I talked to the angels – I told them I wanted to go back to my life – and we agreed that I would work with them once I went back to earth. So I ended up returning to my body very suddenly.

From that time onwards, I found myself spontaneously channelling messages for people I would meet, people at the supermarket till, people who would come to see me through my millinery business ... and my intuitive third eye grew so much that I knew I had to really commit to my spiritual journey. I was lucky enough to travel to the Himalayas in India with a pilgrimage group, and I found it deeply spiritual and grounding. I've been over and back many times since then.

“I told the angels I wanted to go back to my life – and we agreed that I would work with them once I did.”

What inspired you to create 7th Heaven?

The thing that really inspired 7th Heaven, for me, was a trip to Mary Magdalene's grotto in France. During the time that I was there, I was woken up one night by a voice of an angel, repeatedly saying the words 'seventh heaven.' I didn't know what they meant until I returned home. Two days later, I was awoken in the middle of the night by an angelic voice saying, 'work with us using our colours.' I asked, 'what do you mean?' and they responded, 'we will guide you to choose the right colours that represent our energy.'

That night, they channeled through me the whole night to create seven scarves, which would correspond with the seven colours of the Archangels. This later expanded into bracelets and jewellery.

I know that you have experienced many powerful spiritual realisations over the years, and you were involved in the discovery of Kingdom Water. Can you tell us more about that?

Yes, that happened in 2018, when my son and I went down to visit my friend Michelle Keane (founder of Kingdom Water) for a few days. She lives in a gorgeous part of Kerry. I remember one evening after supper, I was drawn to open a bottle of Archangel Michael holy water from Ballinskelligs well, that had been sitting in a press. When I opened the cap, I got unbelievably hot, and I knew from my many past experiences that I was about to be channelled.

I felt a flood of angelic messages come through, telling me about seven ancient spring wells – three grouped in one area and four grouped in another area – which had been buried for hundreds of years, deep under Michelle’s land. They gave me the names and the descriptions of Michelle’s ancestors. During that angelic channelling, Michelle was able to validate who these ancestors were. It was a fascinating couple of hours – Michelle tells the whole story in her book, ‘The Discovery of Kingdom Water.’

Our full interview with Tahnee is available on our YouTube channel – just search ‘Positive Life Magazine’ to find us. For more on Tahnee and her beautiful accessories, go to: 7thheaven.ie

COMPETITION TIME

Tahnee has generously offered the following competition prizes:

- Angel Raphael Peacock Green Cashmere Wrap Scarf for Healing, Travel & Guidance
- Men’s Green Malachite bracelet for Growth, Abundance & Healing
- Men’s Matte Black Bracelet for Strength, Power & Protection
- Angel Raphael Green Bracelet for Healing, Travel & Guidance
- Angel Michael Blue Bracelet for protection, strength & courage

How to Win:

We will post this article to our Instagram, Facebook and Twitter pages shortly after the magazine goes to print. To win, just go to any of our social media pages, find the competition post, then share it. Make sure you tag us, so we know you’ve done it. Winners will be selected through a random draw in May. Good luck!

23

Designed with a story, inspired by the 7 Arch Angel colours to guide & support - www.7thHeaven.ie