These SPF Setting Sprays Make Sunscreen a No-Brainer

We have nothing against regular sunscreen—we're big advocates. But if a new version exists that can be reapplied throughout the day without messing up our highlighter or rubbing off our foundation, we're sold. And guess what? It does. We're here to introduce you to SPF makeup setting spray—aka one of the best inventions of all time. Here, five SPF setting sprays that will keep up with your busy lifestyle (impromptu patio drinks included).
