

Olde World Style Modern and Historical Maps:

United States Maps

Scope and Sequence

The United States Maps collection is a supplemental product meant to go along with any part of a student's schooling. There are maps of all of the U.S. states as well as other maps showing many different aspects of North American geography, both physical and political. In addition note booking pages on state facts are included for each state.

Key:

- Asterisk indicates that both a labeled and unlabeled version of the map are included

I. Geography

- a. Labeled / unlabeled / outlined maps of all fifty states
- b. Colonial America map*
- c. Growth of the U.S. to 1800 map*
- d. Growth of the U.S. to 1810 map*
- e. Growth of the U.S. to 1820 map*
- f. Growth of the U.S. to 1850 map*
- g. Growth of the U.S. to 1880 map*
- h. Growth of the U.S. to 1959 map*
- i. The Mitchell Map
- j. Native American tribes*
- k. Slave and Free States in 1860*
- l. Union Confederate States in 1860*
- m. United States Physical Map
- n. United States Political Map

II. History / Social Studies (Cultural Studies)

- a. Student and teacher keys for all fifty state fact note booking pages
- b. Key for all fifty state flags