ABOUT US

Chris and Katrina started Didspade in their garage in 2013. At the time, the company had a small online customer base.

From 9-5, Chris and Katrina managed the day-to-day operations at a local industrial company. By night, they were packing orders and stocking the shelves in their garage.

Chris has a mechanical and automotive background. His attention to detail and technical skills have helped to develop the brand's reputation for quality, consistency and innovation.

Katrina has a background in photography and customer service. Her experience in these areas have formed the brand's contemporary look and reputation for happy customers.

As the business grew, the couple decided to dedicate themselves to the company full-time. So they packed up the garage, and opened up shop in Chandler, Arizona.

Chris and Katrina's creative vision and dedication are key to making Didspade a trusted brand for years to come.
