

Image from Irish Country Magazine May 2019, styled by Aisling Farinella and photographed by Doreen Kilfeather

BEAUTY TREND

GREEN GEMS

Locally made, global potential

The Irish beauty industry is reaching new heights, with established brands growing from strength to strength and innovative and exciting new Irish beauty businesses always emerging. Thanks to this, our bathroom cabinets are filling up more frequently with Irish beauty products. From skincare, to tan, to perfume, it has never been easier to back Irish brands with our beauty regimes. Here are some of our favourites for summer.

Skingredients Skin Good Fats (€42)
A ceramide barrier balm to help replenish skin's essential fats, vitamins and goodness.

Dublin Herbalists Restorative Gel Face Mask (€29.95)
For when skin needs some extra TLC – perhaps after a long day in the sun – this soothing face mask with lavender and papaya is perfect.

Nunaia Superfood Cleansing Balm (€60)
Made in Tipperary, inspired by the healing powers of Peruvian botanicals, this cleansing balm is gentle, effective and deeply nourishing.

Holos Super Natural Activity AHA Deep Cleansing Cream/Masque (€42)
Super Natural Activity is a brand new range by Wexford-based Holos Skincare. This acid cleanser deeply exfoliates and encourages cell renewal, while also plumping and protecting skin.

Kinvara Eye Wow! Eye Serum (€29.95)
This little serum is jam-packed with goodness to brighten, smooth and hydrate the delicate eye area.

Voya's Dream Cream Restorative Night Crème (€64)
Apply this rich and deeply nourishing cream before bed and wake with super soft and plumped skin.

AYU
Eye C Created
Suzie O'N
brilliant fo circles a instan

SU

human+kind
Body Wash
Gel Douche
pompelo
200ml
1.69 €

BRONZE
BASE
Face Tan