Our Story

Our American hat company has been proudly handcrafting hats for over 50 years. Founder Gary Watrous, started selling handmade leather goods out of the back of his Chevy station wagon in the 1970's.

Today we are one of the largest hat manufacturers in the world.

We are a customer focused business, and the fact that hats we've been making for years and years are still flying off our shelves shows that our hats are truly timeless.

A True American Hat Company for Premium Hats

AHM is your one-stop shop for every style of hat. Our diverse collection ranges from classic to contemporary, ensuring that no matter your preference or occasion, you'll find the perfect hat with us. We pride ourselves on providing a wide array of options, all crafted with the highest quality and craftsmanship.
