

ROCKHARD™ ORIGINAL

MODEL NO. 6207

When the task at hand calls for a durable leather glove with exceptional dexterity, the Cestus® RockHard™ has you covered. The one-piece, goat-skin leather palm is dual layered and reinforced with double stitching for durability. Padding in high-impact areas of the palm give the user added protection, while the saddle adds grip control and reinforces a high-wear area. Shields cover the knuckles and back of fingers for protection from impacts, scrapes and lacerations, along with the metacarpal padding.
