- The maximum suspension period is six (6) months. Extensions beyond this time will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and on HeadMasters' complete discretion.

HeadMasters will continue to check the suitability of accommodation and welfare arrangements until:

- The student has been accepted by another registered provider and that the registered provider takes over responsibility for approving the student's accommodation, support and general welfare arrangements;
- The student leaves Australia; or
- Other suitable arrangements are made that satisfy migration regulations; or

- HeadMasters reports to DHA via PRISMS that it can no longer approve the arrangements of the student.

Cancelling enrolment

Where a suspension or cancellation is initiated by HeadMasters, affected students will receive a notice of Intention to Report. This notice will clearly identify that a student has 20 working days to access HeadMasters' internal complaints and appeals process. When the appeals process is initiated, HeadMasters will maintain the student's enrolment until the internal appeals process is complete.

The suspension or cancellation of a International student's enrolment initiated by HeadMasters will be entered into PRISMS on completion of the 20 working days or at the end of the appeals process if the appeal is not upheld.

If a student does not commence a course or does not reenrol in a compulsory study period (without prior approval) the student will be deemed to have notified cessation of studies and the relevant COE/s will be cancelled without further notice.

International Students should note that a suspension or cancellation of a CoE may impact the student's visa. Students should thus seek advice from the Department of Home Affairs on the potential impact to their visa as a result of this change in course.

VET Student Loans Withdrawals

Students who have accessed VET Student Loans, can withdraw from the course or part of the course. Once the student's intention is determined, HeadMasters will inform the student in writing of the debt they have incurred for any units of study which census dates have passed.

The date the student contacts HeadMasters requesting withdrawal, will be considered as the "date for withdrawal" for the determination of the student's debt.

If the reason for withdrawal stated by the student could be considered as special circumstances, the student will be provided with the recrediting procedure for their consideration. Please refer to HeadMasters VET Student Loans Re Credit Policy

Withdrawal prior to Census Date

- An eligible student withdrawing from a unit of study on or before the census date will be refunded all applicable tuition fees paid up front. The Campus Manager may approve a refund of incidental fees paid.
- An eligible student who receives a Commonwealth student loan who withdraws from a unit of study on or before the census date will not incur a debt for the tuition fees for that unit and without administrative or other barriers to the withdrawal.
- An eligible student who withdraws from a unit of study on or before the census date will be entitled to a recredit/refund of the tuition fees. Exceptions to this will be in circumstances covered by the Tuition Assurance

Withdrawal from a unit of study after the Census Date

- An eligible student who withdraws from a unit of study after the census date will be liable for the full debt for tuition fees for this unit of study.
- Once a unit of study has been graded, no refund will be given.
- A remittance of a Commonwealth student loan will only be given under special circumstances.. Please refer to HeadMasters VET Student Loans Re Credit Policy

HeadMasters VSL Initiated Cancellation:

Where HeadmMasters intends to cancel a student's enrolment in a VSL approved course, or a part of an approved course, after the census day for the course, HeadMasters will:

- Inform the student of the proposed cancellation; and
- Provide the student with at least 28 days to initiate grievance procedures before the cancellation takes final effect as per the Complaints and Appeals Policy.
- provide for the cancellation to take final effect only after any grievance procedures initiated by the student have been completed; and
- set out the circumstances in which fees for the course, or the part of the course concerned will, or will not be, refunded.

VSL Re-enrolment after Withdrawal

If a student withdraws from an approved course, or a part of an approved course, HeadMasters will not enrol the student in an approved course or a part of an approved course without the written permission of the student (which must be given after the withdrawal).

If a student wishes to re-enrol in a part of an approved course with HeadMasters in circumstances where the student had earlier withdrawn from a part of the course undertaken with HeadMasters, they will need to complete the enrolment process and will be required to discuss the impact of the previous loan, (if applicable) as well as the reason for reenrolment.

Students who have accessed VSL and already passed at least one census date, will be provided with 28 days to initiate the Complaints and Appeals Policy prior to the withdrawal being finalised. The cancellation will take final effect only after any grievance procedures initiated by the student have been completed. The communication will also include the debt incurred and any other fees which may or may not be refunded.
