GUARDAIR®

Guardair manufactures OSHA-compliant, safety air guns and pneumatic vacuums used for industrial cleaning. With an unwavering commitment to worker safety and innovation, Guardair has earned a reputation for durable products that maximize safety, performance and operator comfort.

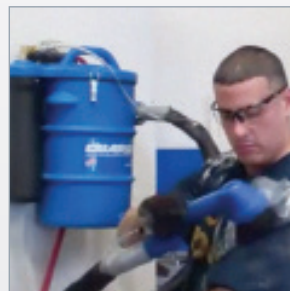

Safety Air Guns

Guardair safety air guns meet or exceed the 30 psi standard as required by OSHA. Also in the line are safety air guns that provide noise suppression, protection from chip fly-back, syphon capabilities and a range of specialty guns for unique industrial cleaning applications.

Pneumatic Vacuums

Guardair pneumatic vacuums offer significant advantages in performance, dependability, safety, and life-cycle cost over conventional electric-powered vacuums. Operating strictly on compressed air with no moving parts or electric motors to burn out, these powerful, versatile and low-noise pneumatic vacuums are ideal for industrial environments.

AIRSPADE®

Air Excavation Tools

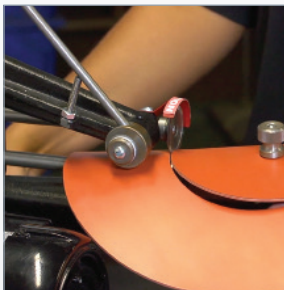

AirSpade is a leading manufacturer of air-powered soil excavation tools. Used in place of traditional digging methods by arborists, landscapers and utility workers, AirSpade is widely recognized as the preferred method of safe and efficient soil excavation.

ALLPAX®

Gasket Cutters and Accessories

Allpax is the largest global manufacturer of gasket cutters, punches and related accessories. Used extensively in the fabrication of custom flange gaskets, Allpax has earned a reputation as the premier supplier of precision gasket cutting tools on the market today.
