

RETURNS & EXCHANGES

For a full return or exchange the item you are returning MUST be in its original condition and packaging. Any items that have been worn outdoors or show signs of wear (i.e. dirt, scratches, stains) are NOT considered in its original condition and may NOT be returned. No returns will be accepted on custom team gear or other custom clothing items. If a defective item which carries a manufacturers warranty needs to be returned you must send us the dated receipt along with the defective item, please, call first 1-888-660-6634.

Please, send this completed form and a copy of your dated receipt along with the item to Select Line Sports within 30 days of purchase. Send your return to us via UPS, Federal Express, insured US Mail or by any other traceable source. We are not responsible for any packages you return that are "lost in the mail". All refunds will be for the price of the merchandise only. Original shipping charges cannot be refunded. If it was through our error that you received the wrong item we will gladly pay all shipping charges incurred in returning the item to us and shipping the correct item to you. If you change your mind and need to exchange an item for color, style, or size the following procedure will be followed. You will pay for shipping cost to return the item to us, but we will send you the replacement item with no further shipping charges.

Exchanges may take 7-10 business days, possibly longer during times of higher volume. If you need an item sooner please call 1-888-660-6634
