Artist's Notebook

The dry brush technique means to slightly wet the tip of the brush then remove most of the paint on a scrap. With a "dry" brush, lightly brush the surface of the head to leave a shaded effect. Consider using this technique to apply Cedar Brown (10) to the cheeks as well.

Painting Instructions

1. Prep the entire decoy in accordance with the decoy painting instructions, prime with gray Parker Decoy Primer. Draw lines using a pencil.
2. Paint the back and side pockets White (2) and the chest and rump Black (5)
3. Paint the head Burnt Sienna (63).
4. Use dry brush technique to lightly apply Black (5) to the top of head.
5. Paint bill Black (5).
