

DISTINCTIVELY CHRISTIAN RETIREMENT
A Biblical call to serve Jesus well in older age
Simon van Bruchem

Contents

Introduction: we believe a lie

Section 1: Retirement is not the paradise we are looking for

- Chapter 1 A history lesson: how did we get here?
- Chapter 2 Work, rest, and identity (You are not what you do)
- Chapter 3 Doing nothing can kill you; the need for purpose
- Chapter 4 Death sharpens the mind
- Chapter 5 Don't substitute 'retirement' for 'heaven'

Section 2: Regaining a firm foundation: what does the Bible say about age and maturity?

- Chapter 6 What does the Bible say about age and maturity?
- Chapter 7 The Biblical example of older believers
- Chapter 8 Seeking the kingdom first in older age

Section 3: Practical challenges retirement poses

- Chapter 9 Fighting the urge to criticise change and idolise the 'good old days'
- Chapter 10 Serving Jesus despite loss of energy, disability, and other limitations

Section 4: Living out a godly life in retirement

- Chapter 11 Retirement and money
- Chapter 12 Retirees in the church family
- Chapter 13 Being salt and light as a retiree