Christmas is coming!

It's almost here ...
the day we celebrate
the greatest gift of all.

It didn't come in a box.
It wasn't tied with a bow.

This gift came from God, and He planned it long, long ago ...
before the first star ever twinkled in the sky.

In the beginning, God made everything good. Then Adam and Eve did what God said not to do. Sadness and badness came into the world.

And people let their sin pull them far away from Him.

But God had a plan—a wonderful plan! He would save His people from sin and bring them back to Him.

God always knew,
and we know too . . .
Christmas is coming!

That night Mary and Joseph stayed with the animals. That's where Jesus—the Son of God—was born. Not in a palace. Not in a home of His own. Not anywhere special at all. Mary wrapped Him up snug and warm and laid Him in a manger.

All the animals knew,
and we know too . . .
Christmas had finally come!

Did you know? Christmas is coming!

And it's much more than presents and parties. Christmas is a day to celebrate Jesus, God's greatest gift! This beautifully illustrated book shares the entirety of the story—from the garden of Eden to a manger in Bethlehem—as God's wondrous plan unfolds and His Son comes to earth.

Page by page, children will listen with anticipation as they celebrate that they know the good news too...
