Course Description

Language Lessons for a Living Education 4 is a Charlotte Mason–flavored approach to elementary language arts. Enjoy an engaging and effective language arts program for your elementary student. Students will move beyond pages of text and memorization to make real-world connections. This exciting new series will help guide your young learner toward mastery of reading, grammar, and vocabulary, as well as the mechanics of communication and writing. Utilizing observation and reading comprehension through poems, stories, and real books as the foundation, your student will continue to build paragraph writing skills.

The course is a story-based approach, using Charlotte Mason ideas for the modern homeschool student with character-building themes. Each quarter has five stories, two picture studies (one of which is biblically-based), and two poems (one of which is a psalm). Using the spelling words and the Dictionary Worksheets, the student will create their very own dictionary as they move week by week through the material. This course incorporates picture study, memorization, grammar and punctuation, spelling and vocabulary, observation, and application through creating their own stories through pictures, sentences, paragraphs, poems, psalms, and letters. This course also develops reading skills and gently develops narration skills. Writing stamina is built up gradually. By the end of the course, students should be able to comfortably write a four to five sentence paragraph.

Required Course Materials:

This course has an integrated reading component that uses 101 Favorite Stories from the Bible, also available from Master Books.

A Note from the Author

This course was written with inspiration from classic educators like Charlotte Mason and Emma Serl. It was also inspired by homeschool educators like David Marks, Angela O'Dell, Katherine Loop, and my colleagues, Craig Froman and Laura Welch. If you could put these people in a room, you would find they all have different thoughts on how to educate a child, yet they have all taught me something that has gone into this series. I have tried to take the effective principles from long ago and update them for a modern world with the hope of inspiring a new generation to communicate their faith, and the gospel, to their generation.

A special thanks goes to Becki Dudley who wrote most of the stories in this level. Thank you to Craig Froman who created the Make Your Own Dictionary concept. Also, thank you to Diana Bogardus for creating the cover, which set the tone and beautiful feel of this course. Thank you to Jennifer Bauer for the hours of design work to marry function with beauty. Thank you to Laura Welch and the proofers for their insight and wisdom.

I am indebted to the Moms of Masterbooks who give us valuable feedback on how to improve our curriculum to meet their needs. We do this for them and their children. It is our goal to come alongside them and provide the tools so they can bring up a godly generation, known by the Lord. When the days feel long, I think of the impact our work is having on homeschooled children, and my strength is renewed. Thank you for allowing us to partner with you in the education of your children.

Of course, my children have taught me for many years principles of education that have surprised and inspired me. I have often marveled that nine children can grow up in the same home and be so different from each other. We truly are wonderfully and fearfully made. I have learned that curriculum needs to be flexible to meet the needs of the unique individuals God has entrusted to our care.

May God bless and keep you and give you wisdom and strength as you homeschool your children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Blessings,

Kristen Pratt

About This Course

Children enjoy patterns. They like to have rhythms in life that they can count out. This course is set up in a pattern that students and teachers alike can rely on.

The first day of the weekly schedule is a special feature. Every other week starts with a short story. The weeks in between alternate between picture studies and reading poetry or a psalm. (Each quarter follows this pattern.) A light lesson follows.

The second and third days of the week cover writing topics such as grammar and punctuation. They are the tools put into the hands of the student to develop their writing skills.

The fourth day of the week, students read from 101 Favorite Stories from the Bible by Ura Miller, published by Master Books. These stories may be read out loud by the teacher, student, or both. We encourage students to read as much as possible to strengthen their skills and stamina. There are three narration prompts following each reading. Next, the student will write out a Scripture verse for copy work. The student and teacher should memorize this Scripture verse together. Each story has a beautiful illustration that the student will sketch.

The fifth day is when the student focuses on spelling and vocabulary, building a dictionary of words they can use in their writing.

There are patterns within the lessons themselves. Students are given a variety of activities that repeat themselves every so often. This creates familiarity without overdoing repetition.

Students' abilities and stamina can vary widely. While we have provided a Daily Schedule, feel free to adjust the pace according to the needs of your student. We have also given varied types of material in the back of the book to aid in the extra practice of key concepts.

There is review built into the course. You will find some topics repeated regularly. Others are repeated in the last quarter when the student will review most of the material they have learned. This is vital at this level since students are still strengthening their writing skills and understanding of grammar. It is the perfect opportunity to shore up any areas the student needs to work on.

We hope you enjoy using this course with your student. It is designed to foster a partnership between student and teacher, with the student gradually taking a lead role. Allowing the student's growing abilities, stamina, and interests to set the pace will allow the student's confidence to strengthen. This confidence is the key that will help unlock communication success.

Teaching Helps

Stories, Poems, Psalms

The stories, poems, and psalms were designed for the teacher and student to read together. This gives reading practice and experience within the context of a short story or passage. This method fosters a partnership between the teacher and the student. It allows the teacher to see where the student excels and needs some extra instructions. It also gives the student a safe place to practice their developing reading skills.

The student should read as much of the story, poem, or psalm as possible. The teacher should help the student sound out difficult words and gently take over the reading if the student tires or is struggling. The goal is to build reading skills and stamina through practice. Care should be taken to stay light-hearted and encouraging with a student that is still working to master reading.

If a student is struggling to read, sometimes their short-term memory needs to be developed. Reading is memory intensive. You can work on increasing short-term memory through memory games. You will find some in the back of the book.

The NASB is used for the psalms and all Scripture passages (unless otherwise noted) in this book, but you may use the version you prefer.

Independent Reading

Work with the student to pick a book for the student to read independently throughout each week. Care should be taken to select a book within the student's reading ability.

Depending on the reading ability of the student, the book may be read orally, with the help of the teacher. Students may also choose to read the book independently, asking for help only when they come to a word they cannot read or do not understand.

You will find in the back of this book suggestions and a place to record the books the student has read or plans to read.

Oral Narration

Oral narration (or telling back) helps a student develop listening skills and reading comprehension. These questions will help a student connect with the story and improve basic narration skills.

Oral narration is a skill that needs to be developed. Oral narration teaches the student to pay attention to the story and to think about what is happening. It fosters memory recall, which helps develop reading skills. The questions are meant to gently lead a student to the goal of being able to tell back a story on their own, with no prompts. Students will vary greatly in their ability to narrate back to the teacher a whole story. We suggest a slow approach, testing a student now and then to see if they can do it without the prompts.

Memorization

Throughout the course, there are opportunities to memorize short passages of Scripture, poems, etc. The teacher should participate with the student and memorize them too. Students this age are naturally good at memorizing, but they may need some encouragement. Modeling and working together is the best way to encourage this skill.

The students will be memorizing the names of the books of the Bible as well as the genres. Two weeks are given to learn most sets of books. The teacher should memorize the books with the student. The class in the story earns a prize once they have recited all of the books and a bonus for the genres. It would be fun and rewarding (but optional) for you to provide a small prize for your student after they have memorized all the books, and a bonus prize for the genres.

Writing a Paragraph

Students will be introduced to writing a paragraph. Each time a student is asked to write a paragraph, they are provided with a checklist to remind them of the structure of a paragraph. We have also provided this checklist in the back of the book. They are given a chance to write a paragraph with a variety of prompts to appeal to many types of students. For example, they are asked to write about things they like and are personal to them, but sometimes the prompt is a picture.

Students may struggle to write a cohesive paragraph, but with practice they will improve. It is good to remind students about using proper punctuation. If they make a mistake, have them correct it but encourage them with what a great job they did. There are different schools of thought regarding whether to correct spelling mistakes. Some believe the student should fix all mistakes to avoid having the wrong spelling imprinted in their mind. Others do not want to discourage the student's writing by having the student fix spelling mistakes. Students vary widely in their ability and personality. I would encourage approaching it on a case by case basis. You know your student best!

If the student struggles to write a paragraph, you can shorten the assignment to the topic sentence, detail sentence, and a closing sentence. If the struggle is stamina, you may write part of the paragraph for the student. You may also want to have the struggling student organize his or her thoughts by reciting what they want to say to you before they start to write. You can also encourage the student by asking questions to lead them through the process. For example, you could say, “Okay, you have a great topic sentence about your cat. What are some things you want to tell about your cat?”

The goal is for the student to improve over the school year, regardless of their ability level. Even writers who are slower to learn this skill can learn to love writing through lots of gentle encouragement.

Picture Sketching

Sketching develops hand-eye coordination, observation skills, and overall drawing abilities. Each Bible story has a beautiful image for the student to copy. Some students will be very detailed in their sketches while other students will draw the bare minimum. We encourage teachers to allow students to start where their abilities are. Progress is the goal, not perfection. We want students to enjoy the process. If drawing is difficult for the student, we recommend picking out one element of the picture for the student to draw. The student may want to use colored pencils to bring their sketches to life. Be sure to lavish the student’s attempts with praise and encouragement.

Spelling and Vocabulary

There are various types of activities to foster experience with words. The student should study how to spell the words and use them as often as possible. Some families will have the student start working with the words at the beginning of the week, with mastery expected by the end of the week. Others prefer to give them out at the end of the week and have the student work on them the following week. Some families only work on spelling the day it is assigned in the schedule. There is no right or wrong way to do it. Use the approach that best meets the needs of your students.

Some students will struggle more than others with spelling. We have provided resources in the back of the book that includes:

- a list of the spelling words organized by lesson for testing, practice, and Make Your Own Dictionary
- a place to keep a list of words to work on
- extra spelling activities and games, including word shape worksheets for all of the spelling words

Please note: Pronunciations can vary by region. Students are asked to sort spelling words by their vowel sounds in some lessons. Please adjust the assignments and lessons according to the pronunciation used by your family.

Create Your Own Dictionary!

The student will use the spelling words and the Dictionary Worksheets to create their very own dictionary.

The teacher will need to make copies of the Create Your Own Dictionary! sheets in the back of the book as needed. They are also available for download on our website. If the student struggles to add all the words to their dictionary, the teacher may let them pick fewer words. Let the student's ability and stamina be the guide.

The student will write out the word and then give a simple definition. They may even want to draw a picture.

This is a good opportunity to introduce a children's dictionary to the student. The teacher should demonstrate how to look up words in a dictionary and use it to complete the definitions. The student may use one word or simpler definitions rather than copy directly from the dictionary.

The student is encouraged to remove the dictionary pages and continue to add words to it long after they have finished the course. The teacher may offer blank Create Your Own Dictionary! pages for this purpose.

Handwriting

While this is not a formal handwriting course, each time a student writes, it is an opportunity to practice handwriting. It is good to remind students to write neatly, using their best penmanship. Copy work at the back of the book may be used for more handwriting practice. We also suggest using Scripture as copy work for handwriting practice.

For Fun!

For Fun! activities provide extra thinking practice. They are meant to be fun. If a student has difficulty solving an activity, offer hints and encouragement. If the student is unable to find the solution, walk them through the process of how to solve the problem. Be sure to provide the answer.

Review

The fourth quarter reviews many of the lessons the student has learned in the first three quarters. This is crucial for students to master the material. The lesson length is longer since the student is familiar with the material. If the student does not have the stamina to complete the longer lessons, there are several options. The teacher may read the work to the student, letting the student do the written portion. The teacher may allow the student to complete some of the problems orally. The teacher may also spread the work over several days, as needed.

Teacher Aids

In the back of the book, you will find a section of Teacher Aids. These aids include assessments, extra practice pages, study sheets, fun games, and more. We encourage you to look through the tools provided to use with your students. They provide opportunities for enrichment and fun as your student learns how to communicate more effectively.

Assessments

Two types of assessments are provided in the Teacher Aids section in the back of the book. We have provided Quarterly Reviews within the curriculum at the end of each quarter. Each quarter has two Reviews covering punctuation, grammar, and writing. There is also a spelling Review. The Reviews provided each quarter may be used as quizzes or tests for grading purposes. The student may be given access to the study sheets in the back of the book when completing the Reviews.

We have also provided an Assessment form in the back of the book that may be used for grading purposes. It tracks mastery of concepts taught throughout the course.

Move Up! Day

It was the first day of the new Sunday school session, and Micah was a bit nervous. He was not really excited about “moving up” to the fourth- and fifth-grade class. He was sad that Jin, who was a year younger than Micah, would be staying in the old class with Mr. Lopez.

As they were finishing breakfast, his dad reminded him that he would not be the only one feeling nervous today. “It’s perfectly normal to feel this way,” he said. “Remember that stepping into new situations is part of growing older and a great opportunity to trust God and learn some valuable life lessons. Try to see this as an exciting opportunity — you might even make some new friends.” But I will be the youngest kid in the class! Micah thought to himself. He was not sure he wanted the “life lessons” that came with growing up.

Then his older sister, Alexia, asked him if he knew who his new teacher would be. Micah was so concerned about being the youngest he had not even considered a new teacher! He really liked Mr. Lopez and was comfortable with him. What would the new teacher be like? Would he or she be as cool as Mr. Lopez? How many kids would be in his new class? Why did he have to be the youngest? Why does everything have to change?

Micah had a lot on his mind as he rode to church that morning.

TEACHER
NOTE

- Please review Reading and Narration tips at the beginning of the book.

- (1) How does this story start?
- (2) What did Micah’s dad remind him of?
- (3) What did Alexia say to Micah? What did this make Micah think about?
- (4) How does the story end?

Analogy

An analogy shows a relationship between words. Even though the sets of words are different, they have something in common. Study this example:

day : light :: night : dark

Do you see how the sets of words have something in common? In the day it is light just like at night it is dark. The words day and light have the same relationship with each other as night and dark.

The analogy we studied has special symbols that help us to read it.

: means "is to"	:: means "as"
day : light	:: night : dark
day is to light	as night is to dark.

Read this analogy out loud to your teacher:

gloves : hand :: night : dark

An analogy is like a fun puzzle to solve. Remember to study the first two words for clues to solve the analogy of the last two words.

Read and complete the analogies.

(1) yellow : sun :: green : _____

(2) soft : hard :: easy : _____

TEACHER NOTE

- Please review reading analogies with the student until they understand the concept and how to read them.

INDEPENDENT READING

TEACHER NOTE

- See instructions for Independent Reading in the front of the book.
- Discuss with the student who an author is and where the name of the author can be found.

Nouns

A noun is a person, place, or thing. A proper noun names a person, place, or thing. Proper names include the days of the week, months, and holidays. A proper noun begins with a capital letter.

Study the chart:

Common Nouns	Proper Nouns	Common Nouns	Proper Nouns
boy	Gideon	day	Friday

country	United States	me	I

Write a proper noun for each common noun.

state _____

girl _____

city _____

book _____

When we write a sentence, we must remember to start the first word of each sentence with a capital letter. We also must remember to end it with a punctuation mark.

There are four types of sentences:

Imperative: gives a command; ends with a period

Declarative: makes a statement; ends with a period

Exclamatory: expresses strong emotion; ends with an exclamation point

Interrogative: asks a question; ends with a question mark

Correctly match the four types of sentences:

Trust in the Lord

On Sunday, Mr. C. explained each section of the temple complex and how it was used. “This is a replica of the first temple constructed in Jerusalem and was built by Solomon, the son of King David. Its completion gave the Israelites a permanent place to worship for the first time. There are many lessons we can learn from the life of King Solomon, but one, in particular, is very important. He was fairly young when he became king, but he loved and followed the Lord. Instead of praying for wealth or a long life, he asked instead for wisdom to rule the kingdom well. He built this magnificent temple and encouraged the Israelites to worship the Lord with all their hearts. He started out very strong. Unfortunately, in his later years, he wandered away from God. He began to trust his own judgment instead of trusting the word of God. Sadly, many of the Israelites followed his example. This eventually led to the destruction of this temple by the Babylonians in 586 B.C. I built this replica as a reminder to myself to seek the Lord and His wisdom first, instead of going my own way.”

Claire volunteered to read aloud the Scripture Mr. C. chose for today’s lesson, Proverbs 3:5–6. “Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and He will make your paths straight.”

Micah couldn’t help thinking that just a few weeks ago he had wanted to go his own way.

 NARRATION PRACTICE

- (1) What did Mr. C explain about Solomon’s Temple?
- (2) Why did Mr. C. build the replica of Solomon’s Temple?
- (3) What do you think Micah was thinking about? Do you remember when he wanted to go his own way?

Rhyming

ABAB rhymes are when the two “A” lines rhyme and the two “B” lines rhyme. Let’s look at an example:

A: It is just about time

B: and I can’t wait

A: to read a rhyme

B: I can’t be late!

The A lines rhyme with each other, and the B lines rhyme with each other. It is a fun way to write a poem.

Now it is your turn to write an ABAB poem. Here are a few rhyming words that you can use if you want to. Just makes sure you write your poem in the ABAB pattern. (Hint: Don’t write A or B in front of your lines. I just put them there so you could see the pattern.)

shower : flower sow : grow play : stay aim : game eat : seat late : plate rain : pane sun : fun

Students may choose their own words this week for their dictionary.

A Brand New Star

The play was about to begin. Claire had her hands full backstage keeping everyone organized, especially the younger kids. She was excited to watch them perform tonight — they had worked so hard! Looking across the room, she noticed Mrs. Pruitt putting the final touches on Ava’s costume. Ava looked very nervous! Claire walked over to encourage her. “Ava, your costume is perfect, and you are going to do a great job! You have your lines memorized so no need to worry. Just go out there and enjoy yourself! Smiling, Ava said, “Thanks, Claire. I don’t think I’ve ever been so jittery!”

Mrs. Pruitt got everyone’s attention, and they joined hands in prayer before she reminded everyone to be as quiet as a mouse unless they were supposed to make noise! With that, she walked out onto the stage to welcome everyone to the performance. Claire made sure everyone was in their proper place. Jin, Ava, and Alexia would be onstage when the curtains opened. She organized the rest of the kids in the order of their appearance and waited for Micah to start the music.

Claire was so busy during the performance that she barely had time to think! She didn’t relax until the applause was over, but she knew the play had been a success. She was so thankful to have played a part and had not realized until now how much work went on behind the scenes. Who knew that organizing and encouraging others could be so much fun?

OWN DICTIONARY!

Students may choose their own words this week for their dictionary.

Lunch at Jin's House

Micah was hungry as his family made their way to Jin's house for lunch. He was excited to show Mr. C. their project, but first things first. Jin's mom was making lasagna because Mr. C. had lived in Italy for a few years. Micah LOVED Italian food!

As everyone talked over lunch, the boys realized that Mr. C. had lived in lots of different countries and had eaten many things that did not sound appetizing to Micah at all. He was thankful Jin's mom had chosen an Italian theme for today's lunch! He began to wonder, what kind of food does Carlos eat? Do they like pizza and spaghetti in Honduras? He would have to write Carlos soon and ask him.

After lunch, they all went to see the temple. The boys explained their process and how they had started with the cornerstone. Mr. C. explained just how important the cornerstone was in that type of construction. Then he told them about a much deeper meaning for this stone. "Today, the people of God are considered the temple and Jesus Christ is our Foundation and Cornerstone. He is what holds us together, keeps us strong, and helps us stay in line with His Word. If we build our lives on this foundation, we will stand strong — just like a well-built building."

"I didn't know we could learn so much about God from LEGOs!" Jin said. His dad responded, "Actually, we can learn about God by studying anything. Even math." Micah and Jin looked at each other with a smile — yep, even math.

- (1) Why was Jin's mom making lasagna?
- (2) What did the boys learn about Mr. C.?
- (3) What did Mr. C. explain about the cornerstone?
- (4) What did Jin's dad say they can learn about God from?

Review: Nouns, Pronouns

A noun is a person, place, or thing. A proper noun names a person, place, or thing. Proper names include the days of the week, months, and holidays. A proper noun begins with a capital letter.

Write a proper noun for each common noun.

state: _____ month: _____

boy: _____ myself: _____

A possessive noun shows ownership. We add 's to the end of a noun to show that it is a possessive noun.

When a possessive noun is plural and ends with s, we simply add an apostrophe after the s.

Remember: Singular means one. Plural means more than one.

Write the plural possessive noun for each noun:

(1) tree: _____ (2) dog: _____

Do you remember what a pronoun is? A pronoun takes the place of a noun. When a pronoun takes the place of more than one noun, it is called a plural pronoun.

Study the chart:

Singular Pronouns	Plural Pronouns
I, you, it	us
she, her	we
he, him	them

Write a sentence using a singular pronoun.

Exercise 2 Day 137

Write a sentence using a plural pronoun.

Do you remember what an antecedent is?

The antecedent is the noun or nouns the pronoun stands for.

Study the examples:

Micah and Jin are studying together.

They are studying together.

(3) What are the antecedents the pronoun They stands for? _____

Do you remember what possessive means? It means ownership.

We do not add an apostrophe or apostrophe s to possessive pronouns.

Study the chart:

Possessive Pronouns

my, your, his, her, its, our, your, their

Write a sentence using a possessive pronoun.

What possessive pronoun did you use in your sentence? _____

What belongs to the possessive pronoun you used? _____

Exercise 2 Day 137

Study the chart:

Pronouns that can Stand Alone
mine, yours, ours, his, hers, theirs

Note: The pronoun his can be used with a regular possessive pronoun, and it can stand alone.

We are going to use the pronoun his in two ways. Study the examples:

Jin showed us his flashcards.

In this sentence, the pronoun his is used to show ownership of the flashcards.

They are his.

Write a sentence using a pronoun that can stand alone.

Count the Words!

- (4) See how many times you can find the word “bird” in this puzzle! Note the example. The word may not always be in a straight line, but it has to follow the letter order in the word B-I-R-D.

B	Q	J	I	J	S	W	B
D	B	T	W	B	I	R	D
O	I	E	A	U	D	J	I
J	R	D	I	R	D	Y	D
I	N	F	B	K	B	T	R
U	M	D	J	O	I	D	I
B	I	R	Y	H	R	L	B
G	Q	V	J	B	D	E	I

Review: Sentences, Punctuation

Start the first word of each sentence with a capital letter and end it with a punctuation mark.

There are four types of sentences:

Imperative:	gives a command; ends with a period
Declarative:	makes a statement; ends with a period
Exclamatory:	expresses strong emotion; ends with an exclamation point
Interrogative:	asks a question; ends with a question mark

Correctly match the four types of sentences:

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------------|
| (1) Imperative | asks a question |
| (2) Declarative | expresses strong emotion |
| (3) Exclamatory | makes a statement |
| (4) Interrogative | gives a command |

Write the correct punctuation after each sentence type.

- (1) Imperative _____
- (2) Declarative _____
- (3) Exclamatory _____
- (4) Interrogative _____

Exercise 3 Day 138

Do you remember what an interjection is? They are words added to a sentence that express emotion. Here are some examples:

Yay! Ouch! Wow! Hurray! Yes! Stop!

Write a sentence using an interjection.

Do you remember how to use commas? We use a comma when we write a list of things in a sentence. We also use a comma when we address someone. A comma comes after each item in a list.

Put commas in the right place in each sentence. (Hint: Some sentences have more than one comma.)

- (5) Did Claire make the flashcards Micah?
- (6) Micah washed the dishes folded his clothes and made his bed.
- (7) Ava did you eat popcorn?
- (8) How long Jin did it take to memorize the books of the Bible?

Exercise 3 Day 138

What's for Lunch?

There are a lot of different places you can go to get lunch and a lot of different kinds of food that you like. Let's see if you can find your way to the "I'm Here Buddy" burger and fries. Use a marker to show your path on the maze map.

Read “Jesus Is Baptized and Tempted” on pages 138–139 of 101 Favorite Stories of the Bible with your teacher.

Answer the questions on page 139.

Copy Hebrews 4:15, then memorize it with your teacher.

Copy the picture on page 139. Color your picture.

Copy the caption from page 139.

Blends

We are going to work with words that have the blends ng, nk, nt, pt, sk, and st.

Learn to spell these words:

belong, bling, blanket, drink, frequent, saint, tempt, swept, scared, scope, skirt, skunk, starve, least

Write the spelling words in alphabetical order.

(1) _____

Exercise 5 Day 140

Circle each of the spelling words in your sentences.

For More Practice:

Write your words in the shape boxes using the worksheet for this lesson in the back of the book.

Write your spelling words on notecards. Write one word on each card. You may create right-brain flashcards with your words.

Ask your teacher to read each spelling word. Spell the word out loud and use it in a sentence.

Title: The Good Samaritan

Artist: Christen Dalsgaard

Scripture Connection

Ask your teacher to read to you Luke 10:25–37 from your Bible.

OBSERVATION SKILLS

- (1) Who are the people shown in the front of this picture?
- (2) Who are the people in the background of this picture?
- (3) What is happening in this picture?
- (4) What colors are used in this picture?
- (5) How does this picture make you feel? Why?
- (6) What can we learn from this picture and the story it tells?

Comprehension

A parable is a story that Jesus told to teach us a lesson.

Write four sentences about the parable of the Good Samaritan. (Hint: Think through the story and answer the questions, either to yourself or out loud to your teacher, before you write them down.)

What happened first?

What happened next?

What happened after that?

What happened last?

Plural Nouns

Remember:

Plural means more than one.

We make many words plural by adding s.

When a word ends in a vowel and y, we add s.

When a word ends in a vowel and o, we add s.

Remember:

plural = add s

ends in s, ss, sh, ch, z, or x = add es

vowel + y,
add s
key = keys

vowel + o,
add s
radio = radios

consonant + o,
add es
hero = heroes

There are two exceptions to this rule!

piano = pianos

photo = photos

Add -s or -es to the end of the words to make them plural. Study the rules if you aren't sure.

(1) waltz _____

(6) photo _____

(2) rock _____

(7) chimney _____

(3) box _____

(8) church _____

(4) hero _____

(9) radio _____

(5) bush _____

(10) fuss _____

Exercise 2 Day 142

When a word ends in the letter f or fe, we make it plural by changing the f or fe to v and then adding es.

There are two exceptions to this rule!

roof = roofs

cliff = cliffs

When a word ends in a consonant and the letter y, we make it plural by changing the y to i and then adding es.

Change these words to make them plural.

(11) calf _____

(12) mystery _____

Some plural nouns don't follow the rules! Do you remember what those nouns are called? They are irregular nouns.

Match the singular nouns with the correct plural noun.

	Singular	Plural		Singular	Plural
(13)	woman	people	(21)	deer	corn
(14)	child	women	(22)	fish	seaweed
(15)	person	children	(23)	sheep	moose
(16)	goose	oxen	(24)	moose	sheep
(17)	mouse	cacti	(25)	corn	deer
(18)	ox	octopi	(26)	seaweed	fish
(19)	octopus	geese
(20)	cactus	mice

Review: Sentences — Subject, Predicate, Conjunctions, Combining

A sentence must express a complete thought. It must have a subject and a predicate.

Remember:

Subject tells who or what the sentence is about.

Predicate tells what the subject does or is.

Circle the sentences that are correctly written.

- (1) Micah was nervous about his new class?
- (2) Dad said Micah would learn a life lesson.
- (3) Alexia wanted
- (4) micah might make some new friends.
- (5) He had a lot on his mind!

Underline the subject and circle the predicate of each sentence.

- (6) Micah wanted Jin in his class.
- (7) Micah was the youngest in his class.

Combining sentences is fun, and it helps us share our ideas in a better way.

- (8) Combine the two sentences into one. (Hint: You will need to use a plural pronoun.)

Micah went to his class.

Claire went to her class.

Exercise 3 Day 143

Do you remember what a conjunction is? Conjunctions are words that join two words or phrases together. Here are some common conjunctions:

for and nor but or yet so

We can memorize this list of common conjunctions by looking at the first letter of each word:

f or a nd n or b ut o r y et s o

(9) Write the first letter of each word here:

That is a silly word that can help us remember some conjunctions. We call this an acronym. An acronym is letters that stand for words. We can use acronyms to help us remember things.

Use the conjunctions above to complete the sentences.

(10) You can either go swimming _____ weed the garden.

(11) I like spring, _____ I love fall.

(12) It is snowing heavily, _____ I can go sledding.

(13) Combine the two sentences using a conjunction.

I like apples.

I love peaches.

Exercise 3 Day 143
