

DANIEL and the very HUNGRY LIONS

• WRITTEN BY •
Tim Thornborough

• ILLUSTRATED BY •
Jennifer Davison

Some books you just listen to as someone else reads them. But this book is different.

Every time there is a word on the page that is a sound, you have to try and make the sound yourself.

Shall we practise the sound a lion makes?

The text 'ROAR!', 'ROOOAR!', and 'ROOOOOOOOAR!' is written in a large, bold, black, hand-drawn font. The background features a faint, stylized illustration of a cityscape with buildings and trees under a bright, hazy sky.

ROAR!
ROOOAR!
ROOOOOOOOAR!

Now we're ready to start this true story from the Bible about a man called Daniel, a king called Darius, and some VERY hungry lions.

Every day the people of Babylon woke up to the sound of the king's roaring, ravenous lions.

And every day Daniel got out of bed,
went to the window, knelt down and prayed to God.

Daniel loved God and talked to him each and every day. Daniel trusted God and knew that he was in control of everything that happened.

God had made Daniel wise and clever and honest.

King Darius liked Daniel and put him in charge.
