

Jesus was Peter's best friend. Peter saw Jesus do lots of amazing things. He knew that Jesus was God and would never let him down.

But one day Jesus was taken away by some scary soldiers.

Peter followed them – but he was very frightened.

“Aren’t you one of Jesus’s friends?” asked a servant girl.