VITAMIN A NURTURES AND REPAIRS THE SKIN

No one can turn back time. The older we are, the more our skin shows “time-lines.” The effect of weather and damaging environmental forces intensify the aging process. The face and neck area is the most at mercy of these forces. This situation calls for a special form of care. The FARAH research team has determined that Vitamin A (Retinol), an important ingredient in skin care, delivers a broad range of efficiency.

FARAH VITAMIN A is an integrated product line for taking special care of mature and weather damaged skin. This particularly strong ingredient is a scientifically proven “anti-wrinkle wonder”. It reduces the visible depth of wrinkles after only a few uses.

As a result, the skin receives an additional moisture boost, restoring the natural balance of dry and worn-out skin.

With Farah's new cytological technology development by its laboratories in France, wrinkles can be treated with non-invasive methods, such as hyaluronic filling spheres, collagen, and Botox.

FARAH Wrinkle Filler is the best alternative to injections and other ineffective wrinkle prevention. It's surprisingly water-free texture, associated with swelling hyaluronic microspheres, fills lines and wrinkles. It works well especially in the forehead, around the eyes, lips, and enlarged pores.

F-1309A – WRINKLE FILLER

Wrinkle filler is a new formulation consisting mainly of hyaluronic filling spheres and nano size synthesis technology, and soft focus pigments. When micro spheres are applied into the surface of the skin, they can easily enter the wrinkles to penetrate the upper layers of the epidermis. It then re-hydrates by taking up water evaporating from the skin to fill in lines, wrinkles, and scars, smoothing out the imperfections of the skin's surface and carrying out an immediate flash effect. It can also diminish signs of fatigue.

HYALURONIC FILLING SPHERES

Active Ingredients: Hyaluronic Filling Spheres, Vitamin E, Soft Focus Pigment

F-1309B – COLLAGEN SERUM

This Collagen Concentrate is part of an anti-aging treatment; this concentrate moisturizes and increases the skin's elasticity and aids in the natural production of collagen. At the same time, it softens the signs of tiredness and fine lines, tightens the skin pores, and repairs skin cells.

Active Ingredients: Sea Collagen, Glycerin

Application: Cleanse skin thoroughly, then let it dry. Apply F-1309A(Wrinkle Filler) to the affected areas on the face and lightly massage in. Wait 5 minutes, then apply F-1307B(Collagen Serum) by gently patting it into the face. This process allows for the Hyaluronic Filling Spheres and Serum to work together. For the best results, use in the morning and evening.

Spheres are swelling in a very short time (about 1 hour) and this volume increase persists for at least 5 hours.

FARAH ASC ACNE TREATMENT

Acne is perhaps the most common chronic skin disease, which causes painful social and psychological effects on sufferers. It is an inflammatory condition of the sebaceous glands and hair follicles, usually found on the face, neck, chest, and shoulders.

Several factors contribute to the development of acne. Among of them are:

1. Over activity of the sebaceous glands that secrete oily substances onto the skin. The sebaceous glands of people with acne are especially sensitive to normal blood levels of a hormone called testosterone, found naturally in both men and women.
  2. Bacteria known as Propionibacterium plays a role in acne development. It grows and produces substances that cause redness and irritation (inflammation), as well as enzymes that dissolve the sebum from the glands into irritating substances, which inflames the skin and creates redness.
  3. There is also a genetic factor that induces acne.
- ASC Acne Treatment Package on Phase 1 combine salicylic and glycolic acids, antiseptic, and anti-inflammatory ingredients that exfoliate impurities and prevent the appearance of black and whiteheads. Phase 2 combines Zinc (inhibits enzymatic activity, antibacterial and anti-inflammatory properties), Sulfur (anti-seborheic action) and Tee Tree (powerful anti-infectious, anti-bacterial essential oil with healing properties), which will help deal with inflammatory acne lesions such as red blemishes, and pimples.

FARAH BETA GLUCAN is the care for sensitive skin. In order to protect the skin from any damage, special ingredients were chosen to create a gentle care that works effectively.

BETA GLUCAN helps the skin look fresh and radiant. It is a special kind of care for sensitive skin.

β-Glucan assists the skin's self-protection. The new active agent β-Glucan helps sensitive skin block allergens by providing protection against environmental influences.

On the cell structures of the human immune system, β-Glucan-receptors are "occupied" by β-Glucan so the allergens from outside are blocked. This way, a layer of protected skin can be built from the inside. Simultaneously, β-Glucan reduces wrinkles by stimulating collagen synthesis and protecting the skin from sunrays.

The Best Advanced Protection Under the Sun

Farah Daily Skin Protector Series:

As the biological interface between the body and its environment, the skin is exposed to the influence of the atmosphere and the sun's rays. Oxygen containing compounds such as nitrogen oxides, peroxy radicals, and UV radiation are acting on the skin all the time. These exogenous burdens on the skin have increased in the past few decades as a consequence of air pollution with nitrogen oxide, depleting the ozone layer in the stratosphere, changing people's recreational activities, and creating a burden on the skin.

UV radiation can penetrate the skin and cause sunburn, leading to premature aging of the skin. It can weaken the immune system and cause skin cancer. At a molecular level, UV radiation is responsible for two effects in particular – reactive free radicals and direct damage done to the DNA. UVA can reach the dermis, causing damage to the structure of elastin and collagen fibers, which reduces the elasticity, firmness, and suppleness of the skin. It aids in premature aging in which the skin becomes dry, coarse, with deepened fine lines or wrinkles. UVB on the other hand will trigger production and accumulation of melanin. The skin thus turns dark, and often forms sun spots and freckles.

FARAH super protector formula is anti-UV, anti-pollutant, and works to repair and nourish the skin.

To be used for: Sun-shielding counteracting UV rays, moisturizing as a day cream, or a makeup base. FARAH SUPER PROTECTOR SUN CREAM formula has an extraordinary sun blocking capability. ## FARAH PEEL OFF MASK

FARAH PEEL OFF MASK - its balanced composition is based on algae derivatives and active carbon that produce a spectacular release of coldness to tone and stimulate muscles.

FARAH PEEL OFF MASK contains algae derivatives that are almost 10 times richer in trace elements than land plants.

They contain a large quantity of polysaccharides that absorb external water while reacting with skin proteins, forming a large volume of active lotion with a revitalizing effect that is particularly noticeable on very dry or mature skin. They also contain free amino acids, organic and inorganic iodine synthesis, aloe vera, Vitamin C, collagen, and mineral salts.

The carbohydrates in these derivatives are capable of setting (solidifying) and forming a plastic film that produces a certain pressure on the area where it is applied. This allows the penetration of the active ingredients previously applied, and the reduction of edemas resulting from traumatism (facial, corporal surgery).

Application:

1. Cleanse with gel or lotion.
2. Apply Enzyme Peeling.
3. Apply Toner with Cotton Pad.
4. Select from various Ampoules. Softly massage in or penetrate with machine for 5 – 10 minutes.
5. Apply Mask. Mix 30g of the powder with 100ml of distilled water. Stir vigorously. Then apply a thin coat of the paste with a spatula onto the skin. Avoid the eye area. Leave it on the skin for 20 – 25 minutes. Then remove the mask by gradually peeling back the film.
6. Apply final care as requested with a day or night cream.

Skin Relax Collagen Mask

A4 F-963S

A gentle, effective, and non-invasive collagen mask that concentrates on treating the fine lines and wrinkles on the forehead, in the eye areas, and around the nose and mouth caused by facial expressions, external detrimental influences, and the natural aging process.

The active ingredients, native collagen and Myoxinol (an extract from the hibiscus seed), work together to provide Oligo peptides and anti-oxidants to fight wrinkles and free radicals. It increases the skin's own collagen production and its capability to retain water and nutrients. As a result, a more smoother, youthful, fresh, and balanced out complexion is achieved.

Collagen Botox

- Aged skin shows less elasticity and inability to return to its initial state after muscle contractions.

- crow's foot around the eyes.
- naso-labial lines around the mouth.

Myoxinol®
INCI:HydrolyzedHibiscus
