

Gollygo
look at me!

GollyGo from PW Dance & Sportswear is a family-run business with two generations of the Thomas family in the senior management team.

Our range of top quality costumes and accessories is designed to fire the imaginative play of pre-school children and juniors. From butterfly wings to their first ballet leotard and tutu, our garments are made from premium materials to stringent quality control standards.

All shoes and garments are made in our own factories to ensure our quality standards are maintained - from design through to production and delivery. This also allows us to offer a very comprehensive customisation process to ensure you always get exactly what you want.

GollyGo products are shipped around the world, with easy online ordering at www.gollygo.com.

Watching our children enjoying imaginative play is one of life's blessings. Our range of dress up and role play costumes are made to make the most of this magical time.
