

Pobal an Oghaím

The Ogham Community

May 10, 2020

Welcome to this week's issue of Pobal an Oghaím, The Ogham Community newsletter. In this issue we share our Collection of the Week (show those grads some Ogham love!), teach you how to say "mother" ("father" and "parents") in Irish, and wish U2's frontman a happy 60th birthday.

We visit Cork, "The Rebel County", and marvel at the handcrafted earrings, bracelets, pendants, and necklaces of our friends at The Celtic Jewelry Studio.

Thanks for spending time with us this week!

GOT GAELIGE?

In honor of Mother's Day here in the States, let's spend some time with Siobhán at Bitesize Irish as she teaches us how to say "parents", "parent", "mother", and "father" in Irish.

GETTING SOCIAL WITH OGHAM ART

These days, we're all about staying home and cooking up some tasty meals. While we take culinary adventures all over our ancestry maps, we make frequent visits to the foods of the Celtic nations. We'd love to see photos of your best Irish, Scottish, and Welsh meals! Email us at networking@oghamart.com!

May 10, 1960: Paul David Hewson was born in the suburbs of Dublin. 16 years later, he answered an ad on a bulletin board at Mount Temple Comprehensive School posted by Lawrence Joseph Mullen Jr. looking to form a rock band. The music world and the path of Irish music would never be the same.

Bono, as he came to be known, turns 60 this week. To celebrate becoming a sexagenarian, he has shared the 60 songs that saved his life. Check 'em out....

#ShowUsYourOgham

By far our most favorite thing to see is our customers showing us their Ogham Art in their own surroundings....on their walls, around their necks, in their bars...on their furry Anam Caras! We are grateful to those who have shown us their Ogham. If you would like to share how your Ogham Art purchase or gift is faring in your life, please email us a pic at info@oghamart.com!
