Well-known artist, Petra Azar, sculpted this amazing collection as a metaphor for the magnetic power of love to symbolize the union of two people and their families. By using the power of magnetism, this collection has not only deep symbolic meaning, but simultaneously offers a revolutionary way to close a necklace. It's a smart conversation piece to equally delight the Mother-of-the-bride, mother-in-law, the brides-maids and the bride herself.

By adding this impeccably crafted necklace as a gift of honor, you will create a new and memorable highlight into your well-planned wedding ceremony, to be worn and talked about long after the wedding is over.
