UTZ BRANDS IS RECOGNIZED FOR ITS 100 YEAR ANNIVERSARY BY PENNSYLVANIA'S GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HARRISBURG, PA (BUSINESS WIRE) – Utz Brands, Inc. (NYSE: UTZ), a leading U.S. manufacturer of branded salty snacks, was recognized today by Pennsylvania's General Assembly for its 100-year anniversary.

Taking place at the prestigious fountain on Commonwealth Avenue behind Pennsylvania's State Capital, the proclamation was led by Pennsylvania House of Representative's member Kate Klunk (R-Hanover). Utz Brands was recognized and celebrated for its 100 years of service and its many contributions to Pennsylvania and local communities across the U.S. which its over 3,000 Associates live and work.

The Utz story began in Hanover, Pennsylvania, in a small-town kitchen. It was 1921. Bill and Salie Utz thought potato chips could be better. They believed potato chips should be made from clean and simple ingredients to bring out the natural flavor of farm-fresh potatoes. While much has changed and evolved over the past 100 years, Utz's focus remains the same -- making fresh, crunchy and great tasting snack foods. The way Bill and Salie Utz intended.

"We are delighted to be recognized by Pennsylvania's General Assembly," said Dylan Lissette, Chief Executive Officer, Utz Brands, Inc. "From humble beginnings to where we stand today, we are very proud of all that we've accomplished over the past 100 years. However, we remain even more excited about our Next Century of Growth as we continue to build an even better business into the future."
