

PIDN001R Nosing

Stair nosings traditionally come in two styles: round nosing and square nosing. They are typically used when flooring is used to cover stairs. They can either be flush with the floor or overlap it. They are typically designed to withstand the majority of the foot traffic on the stair.

